The greatest care and attention to detail is given to the preparation of the program of this college and every effort is made to insure the accuracy of its presentation in this catalog, but the College reserves the right in its discretion to make from time to time changes affecting policies, fees, curricula, or other matters announced in this catalog.

General Information

History

Agnes Scott had its beginnings in the faith and vision of a small group of Presbyterians in Decatur, Georgia. The organizing of a Christian school was undertaken in July of 1889, and, under the influence of the Reverend Frank Henry Gaines, minister of the Decatur Presbyterian Church, it was decided that the school would be primarily for girls and young women. Founded in that year as the Decatur Female Seminary, the school occupied a rented house and had slightly over $5,000 of subscribed capital. There were four teachers and sixty-three students, and the work offered was of grammar-school level. In the spring of 1890, Colonel George Washington Scott, a leading Decatur businessman, gave $40,000 to provide "a home" for the school. Colonel Scott had earlier provided 40% of the initial capital, and his gifts to the new school constituted the largest sum given to education in Georgia up to that time. In recognition of his interest and support, the Board of Trustees changed the school's name to Agnes Scott Institute in honor of Colonel Scott's mother.

Within ten years the Institute was accredited as a secondary school. In 1906 it was chartered as Agnes Scott College, and the first degrees were awarded. The College was accredited in 1907 by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and thus became the first college or university in Georgia to receive regional accreditation. In 1920 the College was placed on the approved list of the Association of American Universities and in 1926 was granted a charter by the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa. Agnes Scott is also a charter member of the American Association of University Women and of the Southern University Conference.

Throughout its history, Agnes Scott has sought to maintain the ideals first voiced by its founders: "... the formation and development of Christian character" and "a high standard of scholarship." The College is proud of its Presbyterian heritage and continues an informal affiliation with the Presbyterian Church in the United States; but it has been since its founding an independent institution governed by a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees. Its academic program has been based on a firm adherence to the traditional liberal arts disciplines supplemented by academic and extracurricular opportunities designed to meet the changing needs of women in our society.

From modest beginnings, the permanent assets of the College have grown to almost $60,000,000 of which some $40,000,000 is in endowment. From a single house on a small lot Agnes Scott has expanded into twenty buildings on some one hundred acres. In its ninety-two year history it has been served by four presidents: Frank Henry Gaines (1889-1923), James Ross McCain (1923-1951), Wallace McPherson Alston (1951-1973), and Marvin Banks Perry, Jr. (1973-).

Purpose

Agnes Scott was founded for the purpose of “establishing, perpetuating, and conducting a liberal arts college for the higher education of young women under auspices distinctly favorable to the maintenance of the faith and practice of the Christian religion.”

In a rapidly changing world of increasing mechanization and complexity, the College continues to put its faith in the life of the mind and the spirit and in the liberating power of knowledge.

As a liberal arts college for undergraduate women, the purpose of the College is as follows:

1. to help the student gain a basic acquaintance with each of three broad areas of knowledge — the humanities, natural sciences and mathematics, and social sciences — and competence in some particular phase of one area;
2. to develop through such study those qualities of mind — analytical, critical, and imaginative — which will enable the student to use the treasure of the past as well as contemporary contributions to knowledge, not only to enrich her own life but also to seek solutions to age-old and new problems;
3. to develop an appreciation for excellence and for man's creative achievements in all fields;
4. to encourage the student to find for herself a spiritual commitment and a set of values which will give vitality, meaning, and direction to her life;
5. to foster a concern for human worth and needs, physical as well as intellectual and spiritual;
6. to cultivate in the student a sense of responsibility to the society in which she lives, both within the college community and beyond.

Policies

Nondiscrimination

Agnes Scott College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, or handicap in the recruitment and admission of students or the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff. This non-discriminatory policy also applies to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the College; and to the administration of education policies, scholarship and loan programs, student employment, and other college-administered programs.

Confidentiality of Student Records

The Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (commonly called the Buckley Amendment) is designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review their records, and to provide a means of correcting inaccurate and misleading data. Agnes Scott College makes every effort to comply fully with the terms of this legislation.

Certain information is considered public and is released by the college at its discretion. Unless a student files written notification to withhold disclosure, the College will release announcements of graduation, honors, and awards and will verify dates of attendance and conferring of degrees. Names, addresses, and other directory information will be released for use within the college community and in the college directory.

Transcripts of academic records and statements of academic status are released to third parties only with the written authorization of the student. The parents of a dependent student have the right of access to the education record.

A student or her parent has the right to challenge any content of the student's education record which is considered to be inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student's privacy or other rights. Such a challenge may be directed to the Registrar of the College and, finally, to the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Suspension, Dismissal, and Withdrawal

A student may be suspended or dismissed from the College if she fails to meet the academic standards prescribed by the Faculty. Each student upon entrance agrees to undertake to live by the Honor System and to uphold the standards and regulations of the College outlined in the Student Handbook. A student who fails to do so may be suspended or dismissed. In either case, final action is taken by the Administrative Committee acting upon the recommendation of the appropriate student or faculty body.

A student whose continuance in college may involve danger to her own health or to that of others may be asked by the Administration to withdraw.

Student Life

The Honor System

The Honor System is the cornerstone of life at Agnes Scott. The freedom to grow responsibly in social and academic life is the basis on which the Honor System is built. Each member of the college community is committed to develop and uphold high standards of honesty and behavior. Self-scheduled exams, unproctored quizzes, and open rooms are among the benefits enjoyed by students. On entering the College, each student voluntarily pledges her support to this way of life.

Orientation

Orientation for new students is planned by a student organization, Orientation Council. All components of the college community help to provide a wide spectrum of activities, both academic and social, on the campus and in metropolitan Atlanta.

Residence Halls

The life of the College is influenced by the fact that students live and work in a small residential community. A dorm president and a dorm council are elected for each dormitory, and a senior resident, who is a member of the staff of the Dean of Students, is available for conferences when needed. All regulations governing the college community are clearly set forth in a Student Handbook which is given to each student when she arrives on the campus.

All rooms are at the same rate. Each room is furnished with single beds, mattresses and pillows, dressers, chairs, study tables, student lamps, and bookcases.

Full-time students must reside in a college dormitory or in a residence with parents, close relatives, or spouse. Exception is made in the case of students in the Return to College Program. Students who wish to change from resident to non-resident status or non-resident to resident status must obtain permission from the Dean of Students.

Advising and Counseling

A chief function of the Dean of the College and her staff, assisted by major professors and other designated members of the faculty, is academic counseling.

General counseling of students, especially in relation to non-academic matters and social and extracurricular activities, is centered in the office of the Dean of Students. A consulting psychologist is available for additional counseling through the Dean of Students.

Health Services

The student health services of the College are supervised by the Dean of Students and are available in the Health Center of the Frances Winship Walters Infirmary. The college medical staff includes consultants in internal medicine, gynecology, and psychology. Nurses are on duty in the Health Center Monday through Friday. A gynecological clinic is held every Tuesday evening from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The residence fee charged all boarding students includes ordinary infirmary and office treatment for resident students. The expense is met by the student if consultations, laboratory work, or prescription medications are required. Resident students are urged to consult with on-campus nurses before seeking off-campus medical treatment. Cases of serious illness or accident may be referred to local hospitals.

Non-resident students may be treated for emergencies at the Health Center.

The College reserves the right, if parents or guardian cannot be reached, to make decisions concerning emergency health problems for any student. The parent is expected to sign the forms necessary for this right. Students are financially responsible for any care received at local hospitals or emergency rooms. Students should have insurance identification cards when consulting with outside health agencies.

Student Government

To learn to live honorably and unselfishly in a community and to share the responsibility of self-government is the stated purpose of the Student Government Association. Such experiences are a part of the broader education offered at Agnes Scott. Students have an active role in shaping the policies and regulations of the College. The president of Student Government, the chairman of Honor Court, and the chairman of Interdormitory Council are full voting members of the Administrative Committee of the College in all student-oriented matters.

The activities of the students are directed through elected members of Representative Council, Honor Court, Interdormitory Council, and Dormitory Councils. Functioning closely with Student Government is the Board of Student Activities, which coordinates the programs of all student organizations including Arts Council, Athletic Association, Christian Association, and Social Council. These groups are responsible for correlating campus activities with the needs of the college community.

Academic Honors

The Beta of Georgia Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa was established at Agnes Scott in 1926. The Chapter conducts annual elections in accordance with criteria and procedures prescribed by the United Chapters.

Superior academic work is recognized by the College in several ways. At the Honors Convocation held each fall the Class Honor Roll is read, and Stukes Scholars — three students who rank first academically in the rising sophomore, junior, and senior classes — are announced.

The Dana Scholarship Program was begun in 1970 with a grant from the Charles A. Dana Foundation. Academic promise, leadership potential, and financial need are criteria for this honor.

The Alpha Delta chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, a national honorary fraternity of Greek and Latin students, was organized at Agnes Scott in 1928. The society encourages classical scholarship and appreciation of ancient learning both in the Agnes Scott student body and in the local high school. The basis of election to membership is scholarship.

Founded at Mulenberg College in 1930, Phi Sigma Tau is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies. The Agnes Scott chapter was organized in 1979. The Society promotes ties between philosophy departments in accredited institutions and students interested in philosophy. Membership is open to all qualified students who have taken at least three courses in philosophy.

Extracurricular Activities

Agnes Scott offers a broad range of activities for student participation. A number of special interest clubs (creative writing, dance, drama, foreign language, music, politics, and sports) are open to students. Through the faculty-student Lecture Committee, the College brings to the campus both lecturers and visiting scholars in various fields and distinguished personalities from the performing arts. Language clubs — Spanish, French, and German — offer opportunities to converse in the language and increase knowledge of the country and culture studied. Student publications are the Profile, the campus newspaper; the Silhouette, the student yearbook; and the Aurora, a quarterly literary magazine.

Arts Council serves as a coordinating body for stimulating creative expression and participation in the arts. Exhibitions of paintings and other objects of art are held continuously in the Dalton Galleries. The Studio Dance Theatre studies contemporary dance and gives an annual formal concert in the spring. The Glee Club, composed of fifty members, presents several concerts throughout the year. Three major productions are given each year by Blackfriars, the college drama group.

The Athletic Association encourages constructive leisure pursuits by offering a variety of athletic activities in individual and team sports. The Dolphin Club, formed in 1935, develops the art of synchronized swimming. Intercollegiate participation is sponsored in field hockey and tennis.

Other groups which meet special needs of the students are Orientation Council, concerned with activities of new students during the first weeks of school; Social Council; Commuting Student Council, which aids these students in participating fully in campus activities; Students for Black Awareness; Chimo, the club for foreign students; the Spirit Committee; and Working for Awareness.

Career Planning

The Office of Career Planning offers undergraduates and alumnae a comprehensive program, the primary goals of which are an expanded awareness of career and lifestyle options, the ability to make informed career decisions, and the development of successful job-search strategies.

To help attain these goals, the Office provides individual counseling, conferences, and workshops on such topics as specific career fields, skills assessment, decision making, job hunting, resume writing, and interviewing techniques.

A major component of the career planning program is experiential learning, with several options for off-campus experiences offered each year. Through the Shadow Program, students spend an afternoon or longer during the academic year talking with Atlanta-area sponsors who work in career fields of interest to the student. By participating in the Extern Program, students themselves have a greater opportunity to perform some aspect of the job as they spend a concentrated five-day period during a school vacation with sponsors and their colleagues. Continually expanding internships and cooperative education opportunities are an integral part of the program.

Each student who seeks counseling has access both to self-assessment aids and vocational testing, as well as to an alumnae advisory network that provides career advisers and role models. A number of prospective employers and graduate schools send recruiters to the campus each year. Full-time, summer, and part-time job referrals are provided upon request. A permanent credentials service is provided for alumnae.

A Career Resource Room contains books and pamphlets about traditional and non-traditional careers, lifestyles, the status of woman in the work world, occupational outlook, and opportunities with specific employers. Graduate and professional school catalogs and directories are available.

Beginning in her freshman year, each student is encouraged to complement her academic work and extracurricular activities by participating in career-related activities both on and off the campus. Counseling, information, and job placement services are available to alumnae as well as to current students.

The Campus

Agnes Scott's campus consists of more than 100 acres and 20 buildings seven miles east of the heart of Atlanta. Its buildings range in architectural diversity from the Victorian spaciousness of Agnes Scott Hall built in 1891 to the modern Gothic Dana Fine Arts building designed by John Portman in 1965.

Buttrick Hall, named in honor of a former president of the General Education Board of New York, is a classroom-administration building. It was extensively renovated during the 1978-79 session. The building contains administrative and faculty offices, classrooms, a language laboratory, audio-visual areas, and seminar rooms.

The McCain Library, erected in 1936 and named in honor of the late President Emeritus James Ross McCain, was completely renovated in 1975-77. In addition to a variety of reading and study rooms, there are seven floors of open stacks. The handsome new Board Room is used for meetings and is located on the second floor with the Archives and the Special Collections rooms. Library holdings include over 150,000 volumes as well as 13,500 items of audio-visual material—recordings, microforms, movies, and tapes. Some 800 periodicals are currently received. A union catalog at Emory University supplements the bibliographical resources of the library. This catalog represents more than 8,800,000 volumes in the Atlanta-Athens area which may be secured for student and faculty use on inter-library loan.

Presser Hall, completed in 1940, bears the name of Theodore Presser, Philadelphia music publisher. The building contains Gaines Chapel, Maclean Auditorium, and facilities for the teaching of music, including soundproof studios and practice rooms.

The John Bulow Campbell Science Hall, completed in 1951, is named in honor of a former trustee of the College. The building contains laboratories, lecture rooms, a large assembly room, libraries, and departmental offices.

The Charles A. Dana Fine Arts Building is named for the late Mr. Dana, nationally known philanthropist. The building houses the departments of art and theatre. A new printmaking laboratory, an outdoor sculpture court and stage, the Dalton galleries, free-standing balcony studios, and a three-quarter round theatre with a thrust-stage are special features of the building.

The Dalton galleries contain five permanent collections: the Harry L. Dalton Collection, the Clifford M. Clarke Collection, the Steffen Thomas Collection, the Susan Walker Robinson Memorial Collection of contemporary ceramics, and the newly-acquired Ferdinand Warren Collection.

The Bradley Observatory, given by the W. C. and Sarah H. Bradley Foundation, was erected in 1949. The building houses the 30-inch Beck Telescope, planetarium, lecture room, photographic dark room, laboratory, and optical shop.

Bucher Scott Gymnasium is the center of athletic activities. Basketball and badminton courts, swimming pool, and physical education staff offices are located here. Adjacent to the gymnasium are a playing field, five all-weather Laykold tennis courts, and an amphitheatre.

The Frances Winship Walters Infirmary, completed in 1949, houses the Health Center and is named in honor of the donor, an alumna and trustee.

The Letitia Pate Evans Dining Hall is named in honor of its principal donor. The building, completed in 1950, has a large main hall and two additional dining areas. The college bookstore and post office are located on the ground floor.

The dormitories, which are all located on the campus, are Agnes Scott Hall, Rebekah Scott Hall, Inman, Hopkins, Walters, and Winship.

Other buildings on the campus include the President's home, the Murphey Candler Student Activities Building, and the Anna Young Alumnae House. Apartments for married students are located in a residential area adjacent to the main campus.

The University Center

Agnes Scott is one of fourteen Atlanta-area institutions composing the University Center of Georgia. Other institutions in the group are Atlanta College of Art, the Atlanta University, Columbia Theological Seminary, Emory University, the Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia State University, the University of Georgia at Athens, and Oglethorpe University. These colleges and universities cooperate in sharing facilities, resources, and activities. Chief areas of cooperation are in library services, visiting scholars, departmental conferences, and faculty research. Opportunities are also available, by special arrangement, for juniors and seniors to take courses at other institutions within the Center.

Admission

Agnes Scott College admits students of varied backgrounds and interests whose academic and personal qualities give promise of success. Qualified students of any race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin are encouraged to apply for admission. The College admits qualified handicapped students and makes every effort to meet the needs of such students. This school is authorized under Federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

All inquiries pertaining to admission should be addressed to the Director of Admissions, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030. Telephone inquiries are welcome and may be charged to the Admissions Office by calling collect: 404-373-2571.

Application for Admission

Agnes Scott uses the Common Application which is a form shared by a national group of private, selective colleges. The form may be completed once by the applicant, duplicated, and mailed to any of the user colleges with the appropriate application fee. The non-refundable application fee for Agnes Scott College is $15 for the 1981-82 session and will be $25 for the 1982-83 session. Many high school guidance offices have a store of the Common Application Forms which students may request.

Application forms are mailed to students on the mailing list in September. Any student may secure an application form by calling or by writing to the Admissions Office.

The College subscribes to a Rolling Admissions Plan. Notification of the decision of the Admissions Committee occurs after all credentials in the applicant's file are received and a decision is reached by the Committee.

The Admissions Committee is comprised of three teaching faculty members selected by the faculty, the Dean of the College, and the Director of Admissions. Members of the Committee make admissions decisions based on evidence of applicants' sound academic training, ability, motivation, maturity, and integrity as shown in school records, entrance test results, and school recommendations.

Agnes Scott subscribes to the Candidates Reply Date of the College Entrance Examination Board, May 1. The College does not require any applicant to give notice of her decision on the Committee's offer of admission, scholarships, or financial aid prior to May 1.

Freshmen High school seniors should apply for admission anytime after September 1 of the senior year. Credentials needed to complete the freshman applicant's file include the completed application form, the high school transcript, the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and/or the American College Test (ACT), and the guidance counselor's recommendation. The SAT is the preferred test. Applicants submitting the SAT must submit also three achievement tests including English composition (with or without essay) and any two others. Achievement tests in mathematics and a foreign language are recommended.

In some cases admission decisions may be made without achievement test scores, but the achievement test results must be received by spring of the applicant's senior year.

Transfers Transfer students are admitted to the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes. Transfer students must complete the work of the junior and senior years at Agnes Scott and must earn a minimum of ninety quarter hours in this college in order to graduate. Credentials needed to complete the transfer applicant's file include the completed application form, transcripts of high school and college records, a statement of good standing, a copy of her college catalog, SAT and/or ACT results, and one letter of recommendation from a college professor who taught the applicant an academic subject.

Readmits Students who have withdrawn from Agnes Scott and wish to return must submit a current application form accompanied by the appropriate non-refundable application fee. The application fee for the 1981-82 session is $15 and will be $25 for the 1982-83 session.

Required supporting documents are transcripts of college work taken since leaving Agnes Scott and one recommendation from a professor teaching an academic subject in this more recent work. The Admissions Committee reviews these files as part of its normal admissions decisions. Students who have not pursued additional study may complete a shorter application form to be reviewed by the Dean of the College and the Dean of Students. The College reserves the right to require an official Application for Admission.

Entrance Examinations

Applicants for admission present either the College Entrance Examination Board series (Scholastic Aptitude Test and three achievement tests) or the American College Testing Service (ACT) battery. The SAT is the test preferred by the Admissions Committee. The SAT and the ACT should be taken in the spring of the junior year or by December of the senior year. Applicants presenting the ACT need not take the achievement tests.

1. College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) The Admissions Committee uses the best set of Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) scores presented by an applicant for admissions purposes.

Achievement tests should be taken by spring of the senior year and must include English composition (with or without essay) and two other subjects chosen from two different fields. Achievement tests in mathematics and a foreign language are recommended.

A student who wishes to be tested in a subject that will not be continued beyond the eleventh grade should take the test in the late spring of the junior year. Achievement tests are used for admissions purposes in cases where the Admissions Committee needs additional test scores and for placement in advanced level courses.

Information about the CEEB series may be found in the guidance offices of most high schools. Students may write directly for information to the College Board Admissions Testing Program, Box 592, Princeton,

New Jersey 08541. Registration is approximately five weeks before the test date. Test dates for the SAT and achievement tests in 1981-82 are:

November 7, 1981 March 27, 1982 (SAT only)

December 5, 1981 May 1, 1982

January 23, 1982 June 5, 1982

October 10, 1980: CA, FL, GA, NY,
NC, TX only (SAT only)

2. American College Testing Program (ACT) Information about the ACT can be obtained from most high school guidance offices or from the Test Administration Department, American College Testing Program, P.O. Box 168, Iowa City, Iowa 52243. Registration deadline is approximately one month prior to the test date. Test dates for the ACT in 1981-82 are:

October 17, 1981 April 3, 1982

December 12, 1981 June 12, 1982

February 20, 1982

High School Course Selection

The Admissions Committee recommends a strong high school curriculum including a minimum of four academic subjects each year. Recommended courses include: 4 years of English, 3 years of math (algebra 1, algebra 2, geometry), 2 years of one foreign language, 1 or more years of lab science (biology, chemistry), 1 or more years of social studies. Skill in English composition, competence in a foreign language, and some understanding of scientific principles and methods are especially important in preparation for a liberal arts education.

Some flexibility is permitted in choice of subjects. Students may be accepted for admission without the recommended number of courses in a particular field.

Foreign Students

Admission Foreign student applicants must present evidence of competence in the use of the English language. The application procedure is that used for other students.

In addition to the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), foreign applicants whose native language is not English should take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Information may be obtained from the local U.S. Office of Information or by writing to the TOEFL Program, Educational Testing Service, Box 899, Princeton, New Jersey 08541. Registration arrangements should be made at least five weeks in advance of the testing date.

Financial Aid Foreign students who do not wish to apply for financial aid adhere to the Rolling Admissions procedures explained on page 13.

Students who wish to be considered for the limited amount of financial aid available to foreign students must submit all admissions and financial aid documents for receipt by the College on February 1. Recipients of aid must notify the College of their decisions on enrollment and aid acceptance by May 1. Further information on financial aid for foreign students may be found on page 24.

Joint Enrollment Plan

The Joint Enrollment Plan recognizes the readiness of selected high school seniors to begin college work before graduation from high school and assures simultaneous receipt of a high school diploma and of college credit. Under this program a high school senior, male or female, may take some courses at the high school and some at Agnes Scott. These students are unclassified and are approved for admission to specific courses by the Dean of the College. The candidates must submit a high school transcript, a record of SAT, or ACT scores, and a letter from the high school counselor stating school approval for specific courses as well as the general recommendation of the school.

Early Admission Plan

Students judged to be ready for college in terms of academic preparation and overall maturity, after the eleventh grade, may be admitted without the completion of the twelfth grade and without a high school diploma under the Early Admission Plan. Such students must have the strong recommendation of their schools for admission on this basis. Early Admission students are classified as freshmen and use the normal application procedure. Some high schools may grant a high school diploma after completion of freshmen courses at Agnes Scott College. A student considering the Early Admission Plan should consult with her high school about its policy.

Advanced Placement, Exemption, Advanced Credit

With the approval of the Dean of the College and the departments concerned, entering students may be exempted from certain course requirements or be placed in advanced sections of freshmen courses or in courses above the freshman level as the result of acceptable scores in one or more of the following:

1. College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement Examination scores;
2. College Entrance Examination Board Achievement Test scores;
3. Exemption Examinations given by the College in September.

Further information may be found on page 28.

Interviews and Overnight Visits

Campus interviews are recommended for all high school juniors and seniors and transfer students interested in the College. Appointments for interviews should be made by calling or writing the Admissions Office at least a week in advance. Interviews may be scheduled throughout the year on Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Saturday interviews are scheduled during the college year from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The Admissions Office is open on Saturday during June, July, and August by appointment only. Campus tours are available following interviews and students are welcome to attend classes of their choice during the week.

Overnight visits during the school year are encouraged for high school juniors and seniors and transfer students who are seriously interested in Agnes

Scott College. Students are invited to stay on campus for any night, Monday-Thursday, while the College is in session. Visitors are guests of the College and stay overnight in a dormitory, take meals in the dining hall, and attend classes of their choice. Interviews are conducted during the student's stay on campus. Overnight visits are scheduled by writing or calling the Admissions Office.

Medical Report

All applicants who accept the College's offer of admission must submit a complete medical history, including a certificate of examination by their physicians, as well as results of immunizations and chest X-ray. Medical Report Forms are mailed to enrolling students and must be filed with the Office of the Dean of Students by August 1. A student may not register for classes until the form is received.

Transient Students

Regularly enrolled students in good standing at other colleges may enroll as transient students at Agnes Scott for one or more quarters to take one or more courses. A request for admission on this basis should be filed in writing with the Dean of the College and supported by the following items sent at the student's initiative: a transcript of record — including a statement of good standing; a letter from the appropriate dean indicating approval of the visiting student's plan and of specific courses to be taken for transfer back to the parent institution.

Return to College Program

The Return to College Program is designed for women whose educations have been interrupted and who want to work toward the Agnes Scott degree or who want to earn up to thirty-six quarter hours of credit as non-degree, unclassified students.

Application forms for the Return to College Program may be secured by calling or writing the Admissions Office.

Financial aid is available to full-and part-time Return to College students. Further information can be found on page 23.

Applications for admission are accepted for the fall, winter, and spring quarters.

Application forms and all supporting credentials must be submitted by the following deadlines: August 15 for fall quarter admission, December 1 for winter quarter admission, and March 1 for spring quarter admission. Applications should be accompanied by the non-refundable application fee of $15.00 for the 1981-82 session and $25 for the 1982-83 session. Notification of admission and financial aid decisions occurs as soon as possible after receipt of supporting credentials.

Credentials needed to complete the Return to College applicant's file are the application form, a transcript of record from each school or college previously attended, and two recommendations from people who know the applicant well. All Return to College applicants are required to have an interview at the College after the application form is submitted and before the Return to College Committee takes action on the folder.

Information on the academic program for Return to College students can be found on page 34.

Alumnae Admissions Representatives

Local alumnae representatives are available in a number of cities to talk with prospective students. Their names and addresses can be obtained by calling the Admissions Office collect: 404-373-2571.

Financial Information

Fees and Expenses — 1981-1982

Student fees at Agnes Scott College meet less than half of the annual operating costs of the College. The difference between student payments and college operating expenses comes from general endowment income and gifts and grants to the College. Fees for full-time students for the 1981-82 academic year are:

Tuition	$4,300
Room, board ¹ , and infirmary fee	1,700
Student activity fee	75
	$6,075

Schedule of Payments

Fees for new students:

	Resident Students	Non-resident Students
At time of application (non-refundable)	$ 15	$ 15
By May 1 (non-refundable)	235	235
By August 1	1,950	1,375
By December 1	1,950	1,375
By March 1	1,925	1,375
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$6,075	$4,375

This $15 non-refundable application fee charged all new students is credited to the account of those who enroll. New students make a non-refundable, enrollment-retaining payment of $235, also credited to their account, on or before the Candidates Reply Date of May 1.

The application fee for the 1982-83 session will be $25, and the enrollment-retaining payment will be $250.

Fees for returning students:

	Resident Students	Non-resident Students
By April 1 (non-refundable)	$ 100	$ —
By July 1 (non-refundable)	300	300
By August 1	1,900	1,375
By December 1	1,900	1,375
By March 1	1,875	1,325
	<hr/>	<hr/>

¹During the college session, three meals a day are provided seven days a week.

Students already in residence pay a $100 room-retaining deposit by April 1. This non-refundable deposit entitles the student to select a residence hall room for the next year. All returning students, both resident and commuting, make a non-refundable enrollment-retaining deposit of $300 by July 1.

Students receiving financial assistance from the College are expected to pay the full amounts of the room-retaining fee by April 1 and the enrollment-retaining fee by July 1. Grants and loans are then applied equally against the three quarterly payments. Any refunds that result from over-payment are made upon request at the beginning of each quarter.

Special Rates

Quarterly Rates Permission to attend classes for less than the full academic year, i.e., by the quarter, must be obtained from the Office of the Dean of the College. The quarterly rate will be applied to the charges for the entire academic year.

Quarterly rates are $2,125 for a resident student and $1,550 for a commuting student. The quarterly rate applies if a student attends less than three quarters or changes her classification from resident to non-resident student or vice versa.

The $75 student activity fee is not included in these charges and is due at the beginning of the first quarter of enrollment. The advance deposits are due at the scheduled time and are then credited against the total amount charged for the quarter.

Quarter Hour Rates Unclassified and Return to College students who take less than a full academic load (12 hours) in a quarter pay tuition at the rate of $125 per quarter hour. These students are not charged a student activities fee.

Special Fees

Senior Fee A senior fee of $25 to cover rental of cap, gown, and hood and the purchase of the diploma is required of all students who expect to graduate in June. This payment is due August 1.

Music Fees The fee for private lessons in applied music (including practice) is $300. This fee applies to all students except senior music majors, and it covers two thirty-minute lessons per week for the academic year. Payments of the music fee may be made in full in September or at the beginning of each quarter. The charge for one thirty-minute lesson weekly is half the regular fee.

In 1981-82 group instruction in harpsichord and voice will be offered for a fee of $25 per quarter.

Terms

A student may not attend classes or take examinations until accounts have been satisfactorily adjusted with the Accounting Office. All financial obligations to the College must be met before a student can be awarded a diploma or before a transcript of record can be issued to another institution.

The College does not make refunds for tuition or room fees if a student leaves the College before the end of the academic year. A per diem board refund will be made if a boarding student withdraws during the first five weeks of a quarter. Per diem refunds are calculated from the date that the official withdrawal card is received by the Registrar.

The College does not provide room and board for resident students during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, or spring vacation. The dining hall and residence halls are closed during these periods.

The College exercises every precaution to protect property of students but cannot be responsible for any losses that may occur. Students responsible for any damages involving repairs, loss, or replacement of college property are subject to special charges.

It is understood that upon the entrance of a student her parents (or guardian) accept as final and binding the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog and on the application for admission or re-registration.

Deferred Payments

Many families elect to meet expenses from current income through a tuition payment plan. The College endorses a low cost, deferred payment program which includes insurance protection. Information may be obtained from Insured Tuition Payment Plan, 53 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02108. Deferred payments are not authorized for the advance fees due in the spring.

Health Insurance

There is no charge for routine treatment in the student Health Center. To help meet possible medical expenses not provided by the college health services, a twelve-month Student Accident and Sickness Insurance Plan is recommended. Information concerning this plan is sent to parents prior to the opening of the session. This coverage is required of foreign students.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

Agnes Scott makes every effort to provide financial assistance for students whose resources are insufficient to meet expenses at this college. In 1980-81 approximately 49% of the student body received aid from the College in amounts ranging from $250 to full room, board, tuition, and fees.

An Agnes Scott financial aid award is usually a combination of grant, low-interest Agnes Scott loan, and the opportunity for campus employment. Students may choose not to accept the loan or the employment portions of their package. Grants and loans are applied toward students' accounts. The loans bear no interest while students are in attendance and are repayable after withdrawal or graduation. Loan payments may be deferred during full-time attendance at a graduate or professional school. Students are paid for campus employment by payroll check on a bi-weekly basis.

Financial aid awards are made for one year, but are renewable on evidence of continued financial need. The amounts of subsequent awards are based on current financial statements filed each year. Students are expected to be members in good standing of the college community.

Any student receiving financial aid who withdraws from the College during the refund period will not receive a refund personally. Instead, money that is refunded will go back into the various accounts of the programs from which she received funds. In cases where the student withdraws from the College and has received cash for non-direct educational expenses, repayment of unused funds may be necessary.

Financial aid information is confidential and is not a factor in admissions decisions.

Agnes Scott Awards

Application Procedure Freshmen applicants seeking financial assistance file a Financial Aid Form (FAF) with the College Scholarship Service (CSS), P.O. Box 2700, Princeton, New Jersey 08541. The College will accept also the Family Financial Statement (FFS) which is to be submitted to the American College Testing Program (ACT), P.O. Box 4005, Iowa City, Iowa 52243, but the FAF is preferred. These forms may be obtained from the high school guidance office and should be filed between January 1 and February 15 for priority consideration. Prospective students should indicate their interest in financial assistance on the Agnes Scott application for admission. There is no institutional application form for financial aid, but students should complete the FAF Supplement or the FFS Student Data Form which accompanies the FAF or FFS.

Presently enrolled students seeking aid for the next session should obtain a copy of the FAF from the Financial Aid Office. Instructions for applying are posted on the official bulletin board at the beginning of the winter quarter. Transfer applicants may obtain a copy of the FAF from the Agnes Scott admissions office. They should arrange also to have a financial aid transcript sent to the Agnes Scott Director of Financial Aid from all institutions they have previously attended.

Determination of Awards The amount of financial aid granted to a student is based on need, which is defined as the difference between the cost of attending Agnes Scott and the family's financial resources. The Agnes Scott Financial Aid Committee determines from the CSS Financial Aid Form or the ACT Family Financial Statement the family resources which should be available to the student for college expenses. Among the factors used in the analysis are the following: family and student income and assets (including the student's summer earnings), taxes, medical expenses, extraordinary debts and expenses, current living expenses and retirement allowances, number of dependents, and number of children in college. Copies of the federal income tax return for both the student and her parents for the year prior to entrance are required for verification. These should be submitted to the Financial Aid Office by May 1. Students are expected also to inform the Financial Aid Office of any significant changes in the financial situation of their family which might necessitate an increase or decrease in aid.

Confidentiality of Awards Since the amount of an award reflects a family's financial circumstances, the award will be considered a private matter among the student, her parents, and the Financial Aid Committee. In accordance with the legislation titled "The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974," Agnes Scott College will not release this information to others (except specific scholarship donors) without the student's written consent.

Notification of Awards New students are notified shortly after receiving notice of acceptance, provided their aid applications are complete. Returning students are usually notified by April 1.

Special Scholarships In addition to need-based grants, loans, and campus jobs, Agnes Scott offers a number of scholarships based on merit. Agnes Scott Honor Scholars are chosen each year through a national selection process. Each Honor Scholar receives $2,500 per year for her four-year college career, if she continues to meet the qualifications of the scholarship. To be eligible for these scholarships, students must have outstanding high school records, present an SAT composite of 1200 to 1600, and show evidence of leadership. All application materials must be submitted to Agnes Scott by a specified deadline, usually early to mid-January, and interest in competing for the Agnes Scott Honor Scholarships must be indicated on the Agnes Scott Application for Admission. Further information about the Agnes Scott Honor Scholars Program may be obtained from the Office of Admissions, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030.

Agnes Scott offers several four-year scholarships annually through the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Recipients are selected from finalists who have designated Agnes Scott as their college choice and the minimum award is $500 per year. The Charles A. Dana Scholarship Program totalling $40,000 in 1981-82 will be awarded to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Factors in selection of the Merit and Dana Scholars are leadership potential and academic promise and achievement. Financial need is the basis for determining the amount of each scholarship.

The Nannette Hopkins Scholarships in music are awarded annually to students planning to major in music on the basis of musical talent and promise. These renewable scholarships are $1,000. Applications are obtained from the admissions office. Applicants are expected to audition in person or on tape for the music department before April 1.

The Marie L. Rose Scholarship of $1,000 is awarded annually by the Huguenot Society of America to a rising sophomore, junior, or senior who presents proof of eligibility as a Huguenot descendant. Applications for this award must be submitted to the Agnes Scott Financial Aid Committee by June 1 of each year. The Committee makes its recommendations to the Society on the basis of academic performance and personal qualifications.

Return to College Students Both part-time and full-time students may apply for financial assistance from the College. A Financial Aid Form and an FAF Supplement, which can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office, should be submitted well in advance of the quarter in which matriculation is intended. Financial aid decisions on Return to College students are made by the Return to College Committee where special consideration is given each case. Awards are typically in the form of grants. In special hardship cases of full-time degree candidates, loans and employment on campus may be offered also. Return to College students are encouraged to apply for federal and state aid for which they may be eligible.

Foreign Students A limited amount of financial aid based on need is available for foreign students. Interested foreign students may obtain both the CSS Declaration and Certification of Finances and the Financial Aid Application for Students in Foreign Countries from the Agnes Scott admissions office. Foreign students must be able to provide at the least their own transportation, vacation and summer expenses, and health insurance. February 1 is the deadline for receipt of all admissions and financial aid documents from foreign students interested in aid.

Recipients of aid must notify the College that they intend to enroll and accept aid by May 1.

Other Sources of Funds

Students interested in financial assistance at Agnes Scott are required to apply for all federal and state grants which may be available to them and to answer immediately all inquiries related to these grants. Students are encouraged to investigate the possibility of aid through community agencies, local foundations, corporations, unions, and religious and civic groups. High school counselors and local libraries or the Agnes Scott Director of Financial Aid should be consulted for further information.

Federal Programs The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program (newly named the Pell Grant Program) is a federal student aid program which provides grants to those with substantial financial need. In order to be considered for this grant, students should follow all appropriate instructions on the FAF and FFS. No other application is necessary.

The Guaranteed Student Loan Program (GSLP) enables students to borrow directly from banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and other participating lenders. These loans are guaranteed by a state or private nonprofit agency or insured by the federal government. No interest is charged the student while the student is in school. Six months after the student leaves school, interest begins to accrue.

The Parent Loan Program, to become effective January 1, 1981, will enable parents of dependent undergraduates to borrow funds from lenders at reasonable interest rates. Interest will begin to accrue sixty days after disbursement.

All inquiries about these loans should be made to the local lender.

State Grants Georgia residents who are classified as degree candidates, who were legal residents of Georgia for the twelve months immediately preceding enrollment, and who are enrolled for at least twelve quarter hours are eligible for tuition grants through the Georgia Grant Program for Private Colleges. These grants, which were $600 per student for the 1980-81 session, are not based on financial need.

Georgia residents who are full-time students, and who demonstrate substantial financial need, are eligible for Student Incentive Grants (formerly the Georgia Incentive Scholarships) which range from $150 to $450 per year.

There is a common application form for the Georgia programs which must be filed yearly and is available in the Financial Aid Office. Students applying for the Student Incentive Grants must file by May 15 in the Financial Aid Office. Those who wish to apply only for the Georgia Tuition Grant must file by the tenth day of the first quarter of the term for which they register.

Other states including Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont have grant programs which may be used in out-of-state colleges. Inquiries about these programs should be made to the Office of Education of the state in which the student resides.

Student Responsibilities in Receiving Federal and State Assistance Students are responsible for knowing and complying with all instructions and regulations of the various governmental student assistance programs. To receive funds from these sources, students must be in "good standing" and be "making satisfactory progress" in their course of study. For the purposes of receiving this aid, these terms are defined as the "eligibility of a student to continue in her studies at Agnes Scott."

Further Information All types of financial assistance, including others not listed here, are fully described in the handbook Financing Your Agnes Scott Education. This booklet may be obtained by writing to the Director of Financial Aid, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030.

The Academic Program

The Curriculum

Agnes Scott College confers the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The academic program is planned to allow the student the maximum possible freedom within the scope of a liberal arts education. The curriculum is designed to help her gain a basic acquaintance with the major areas of knowledge and competence in one or two disciplines in these areas. She achieves these objectives through a plan of distribution of studies, concentration in one or two disciplines, and elective work to meet her special interests.

The College operates on a three quarter academic calendar, and the unit of credit is the quarter hour. A course scheduled for three fifty-minute class periods a week for one quarter carries credit of three quarter hours, and a course scheduled for three class periods a week for the academic year carries credit of nine quarter hours. A three-hour laboratory is equivalent to one class period. Some courses carry four or five quarter hours of credit, indicating four or five class periods or the equivalent each week.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

Hours and Quality

The minimum number of credit hours required for the B.A. degree is one hundred and eighty, usually earned in four years (twelve quarters). Minimum qualitative requirements for the degree are a cumulative 1.00 quality point ratio (C average) on courses taken at Agnes Scott and a grade C or above on every course accepted for transfer credit.

Residence

The junior and senior years, or three of the four years including the senior year, are to be completed at Agnes Scott. Under special circumstances, a student who has completed three years at Agnes Scott, or two years including one at the upper-division level, may take the senior year at another institution. A request for this exception to the residence requirement must be filed with the Dean of the College by the beginning of the spring quarter of the preceding session. Permission may then be granted by the Committee on Academic Standards on recommendation of the chairman of the major department and the Dean of the College.

Classified students in the Return to College program comply with degree requirements according to the following maximum time limits: (a) four years, if initially classified as a junior; (b) six years, if initially classified as a sophomore; and (c) eight years, if initially classified as a freshman. For students in this program, the junior and senior years are equivalent to the final ninety quarter hours of credit for the degree.

Distribution of Studies

For success in any field of education a student should be able to read attentively and critically, to write clearly and analytically, and to use research skills. Therefore, a specific requirement for all freshmen is a course in English composition and reading.

A student, unless exempted, will complete a course in biblical literature in order to have some understanding of the Judaeo-Christian dimension of Western civilization.

A student, unless exempted, will complete the intermediate level of an ancient or a modern foreign language in order to gain some knowledge of another civilization through its own language and literature.

A student will take six quarters of physical education during the first two years of residence in order to have a regular program of physical activity.

A student, in order to ensure breadth of intellectual experience, will choose one or more courses from each of the following groups:

1. Literature in the language of its composition — literature in English or ancient or modern foreign language at the 200 level or higher. A minimum of 9 quarter hours in one discipline.
2. History, classical civilization and history, philosophy. A minimum of 9 quarter hours in one discipline.
3. Astronomy, biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics. A minimum of 14 quarter hours with at least two quarters of work in each of two disciplines, one of which must be a laboratory science.
4. Anthropology, economics, political science, psychology, sociology. A minimum of 9 quarter hours in one discipline.
5. Art, creative writing, music, theatre. A minimum of 5 quarter hours in one discipline.

The Major

In the spring quarter of the sophomore year each student usually elects a major or majors consisting of an approved program of courses taken in one discipline or in each of two disciplines. This choice may be made as early as the spring quarter of the freshman year.

The major consists of a minimum of forty-five quarter hours, exclusive of internships, and a maximum of seventy-two quarter hours, inclusive of internships, in one discipline. Any hours in excess of seventy-two must represent work beyond the one hundred eighty hours required for the degree, unless permission for additional hours has been given for a specific interdepartmental major.

The major program must be approved by the department chairman.

Major work is offered in the following disciplines: Art, Bible and Religion, Biology, Chemistry, Classical Languages and Literatures, Economics, English, French, German, Greek, History, Latin, Mathematics, Music, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish, and Theatre.

Interdepartmental majors are offered in Art History-English Literature, History-English Literature, Fine Arts, International Relations, and Mathematics-Physics. Intradepartmental majors are offered in English and Creative Writing and in Physics-Astronomy.

It is possible to design a major which cuts across departmental lines. A student who is interested in creating her own major should consult the Dean of the College who will assign her an adviser. The student and her adviser may design a major program in keeping with the student's interests. Such a program must be presented to the Curriculum Committee for approval, usually during the spring quarter of the student's sophomore year.

EXEMPTION, PLACEMENT, AND CREDIT BY EXAMINATION

Some students, because of superior high school preparation and special opportunities, may have had the equivalent of college-level work before beginning the freshman year. An effort is made to see that no student finds college work a repetition of previous experience. The following instruments are recognized as appropriate testing devices: Advanced Placement Examination of the College Entrance Examination Board, Achievement Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, and exemption examinations prepared by certain departments at the College. On the basis of scores on these tests, a student may be awarded college credit, placed in an advanced level course, or given exemption from a course or distribution requirement.

A student who wishes to receive credit for college-level courses taken in high school must take the College Board Advanced Placement Examination in May of her senior year in high school. College credit will be awarded for a grade of 4 or 5 on the following examinations: American History, Biology, Chemistry, English, European History, French, German, Mathematics (Calculus AB and Calculus BC), Physics C, Spanish. College credit may be recommended by the appropriate department for those students who have made a grade of 4 or 5 on the following examinations: Art, Latin, Music, Physics B. The awarding of credit in these areas is dependent upon action of the faculty. No credit is awarded for a grade of 3 on Advanced Placement Examinations except that credit may be recommended for Calculus BC with a grade of 3. Nine quarter hours of credit will be awarded except in the case of Biology, Chemistry, and Physics where the credit will be eight quarter hours.

Certain students, upon the recommendation of the department concerned, may be placed in advanced-level courses. Scores on the Achievement Tests of the College Board and on tests administered at the College are used in conjunction with other test scores.

With the approval of the department concerned, a student may be exempted from certain distribution requirements for the degree. Exceptionally high scores on the Achievement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board or on exemption tests prepared by the College form the basis for the exemption. Every freshman, during the summer prior to her entrance in college, is given the opportunity to request exemption examinations to be administered after her arrival at the College. Achievement Test scores submitted as part of admissions credentials may be used also.

OTHER CURRICULAR OPPORTUNITIES

Independent Study

Students with proven ability in a major field may have the opportunity to explore for themselves some area of intellectual or artistic interest in the major and to produce independently a piece of work connected with it. Students may begin a program of Independent Study as early as the spring quarter of the junior year. A student who wishes to participate in the program makes application to her major department. Admission to the program is granted by the Committee on Independent Study upon the recommendation of the academic department.

Independent Study carries the course number 490 and may be taken for three, four, or five hours per quarter with a minimum total of six hours and a maximum of ten. A minimum of six quarter hours of Independent Study is required for graduation With High Honor.

Special Study

Special Study, offered by most academic departments, is designed for senior majors who wish to pursue work in some area not included in the department's existing course offerings. Though it is intended primarily for senior majors within the department, a few non-majors who present sufficient evidence of preparation in the discipline may be admitted. Special Study, numbered 410, may be taken for three to five hours of credit. Applications for admission to the program are submitted to the Curriculum Committee. Ordinarily a student may take no more than six hours of 410 in a single discipline and no more than ten hours of 410 during her college program. In unusual circumstances, a junior may be admitted to the program.

Freshman and Sophomore Seminars

Certain academic departments offer special seminars, designated as 190, for freshmen and sophomores. The courses are limited in enrollment, and a student may not elect more than one such course in any quarter. Topics vary from year to year and are announced each spring prior to Course Selection Week.

These seminars carry one hour of academic credit each quarter. Credit earned in 190 courses may not be applied toward satisfying distribution requirements for the degree.

Agnes Scott Summer Programs

Agnes Scott offers several summer study programs, both abroad and in the United States. These programs are usually on a rotating basis. Detailed course descriptions of each program are to be found in the section on Courses of Instruction. Dates, costs, and other details of the programs are supplied during the academic year prior to the program. These courses are on the same credit and quality-point system as those taught in the regular college session and are not included in the thirty-hour limitation for summer school work elsewhere.

There are two summer study programs in Biology. Desert Biology (1982) is taught in the western United States. Marine Biology (1981) is to be taught in coastal areas of the Southeast.

A number of programs exist outside the United States. They are as follows: Summer Study in Rome in Classical Art and Architecture (1982); Summer Study in Germany for students of German (1981); Summer Study in England and Scotland in British history (1983).

Junior Year Abroad

A qualified student may substitute for the work of the junior year at Agnes Scott a year of study abroad in an approved program. To be eligible for the junior year abroad a student must have high standing in the work of the first two years at Agnes Scott and must be recommended by her major department and the language department concerned. A number of programs abroad offered by American colleges and universities place special emphasis on the study of the language and culture of another country. Other students, especially in the areas of English and history, have the opportunity to spend the junior year in a British university.

Students interested in applying for junior year abroad programs should consult their major departments early in the sophomore year. Written requests to take the junior year abroad must be filed with the Dean of the College before February 1 of the sophomore year and must be approved by the Committee on Academic Standards. Credit for junior year abroad programs is awarded on the basis of a transcript from an American college or university. In the case of a student pursuing an independent program at a British university, credit is awarded by the Curriculum Committee upon the recommendation of the departments concerned.

The Washington Semester

Agnes Scott participates in American University's Washington Semester Program. Juniors and seniors admitted to the program spend the fall quarter at American University in Washington. Students of political science have the opportunity to study and observe the federal government in operation. Policy making as it relates to international and domestic economic policy is studied by majors in economics. Science students have the opportunity to learn about national problem areas such as energy, pollution, and health. Several other programs may be arranged for students in other disciplines. Agnes Scott students are nominated for the program by their major departments and apply through the Dean of the College.

Exchange Programs

Agnes Scott College and Mills College, in the San Francisco Bay area, Oakland, California, have an agreement whereby students enrolled at either college may spend a quarter, semester, or year at the other college. Participants in the program remain enrolled in their home college and pay all fees to the home college. Students interested in the possibility of attending Mills for a period should consult the Dean of the College. Permission to take part in this program or in other programs which may be arranged is given by the Committee on Academic Standards.

Field Experiences (Internships)

Learning through field experience can be a valuable adjunct to classroom learning. The College will endeavor to make worthwhile experiences possible for students whose academic programs would benefit from such opportunities. Academic credit will be awarded for such established programs as the internship with the Georgia Legislature and the internship with the Washington Semester Program. Credit may be authorized by the Curriculum Committee upon the recommendation of the appropriate department for other field experiences such as the Governor's Intern Program. A student interested in a field experience for academic credit should contact the chairman of her major department. Internships carry the course number 450.

Students are urged to take advantage of other beneficial experiences even though the awarding of academic credit may seem inappropriate.

PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Teaching

Agnes Scott has a state-approved program for teaching at the elementary level and in several secondary fields. A new program for certification in elementary/general music and/or choral music was approved in 1980. A student who completes any of these programs satisfactorily is eligible for initial Georgia certification, generally accepted throughout the United States. In the case of a few states, certain specific courses are required; arrangements can be made to meet these special requirements as a part of the Agnes Scott degree program.

A student in the professional teacher education program has an opportunity to observe and to work in a wide variety of school settings. Tutoring opportunities in schools are open to students at all levels, including freshmen.

Students interested in teaching should consult the Chairman of the Department of Education and the Chairman of the Department of Music, in the case of students interested in music certification, as early as the beginning of the freshman year and no later than the spring quarter of the sophomore year.

Dual Degree Programs with the Georgia Institute of Technology

A student may combine three years of liberal arts studies at Agnes Scott with two years of specialized work at the Georgia Institute of Technology. Upon completion of this five-year liberal arts/professional program, the student will be awarded the Bachelor of Arts degree from Agnes Scott and a bachelor's degree from Georgia Institute of Technology. The Georgia Tech degree may be in a variety of engineering fields: in information and computer science, in industrial management, or in management science. With advanced planning, a few outstanding students will be able to complete a master's degree at Georgia

Tech with a minimum of additional time.

Students interested in the 3-2 program should consult the Agnes Scott dual degree coordinator as early as possible in the freshman year. Requirements include certain courses in science, mathematics, and economics. In addition, the student must select a major and plan a program which will satisfy all distribution requirements for the Agnes Scott degree by the end of the junior year and, if the student should elect to remain at Agnes Scott for the senior year, all requirements for an Agnes Scott departmental major.

Admission to the program at the Georgia Institute of Technology is based on completion of the requirements stated above and on the recommendation of the dual degree coordinator at Agnes Scott, currently the chairman of the mathematics department.

Preparatory Program for Business

For students interested in business careers, the College has selected from its curriculum a group of courses designed to familiarize them with the skills and knowledge to facilitate their entrance into business.

The program does not alter requirements for graduation; nor does it constitute a major. Rather, it is designed to serve as an academic bridge from an undergraduate liberal arts curriculum into business careers.

Students who choose to follow the program will complete nine of the courses listed below, including work from at least three disciplines and including Economics 204, 205, and 311. In addition, they will complete Mathematics 101 or Mathematics 120. Their official transcripts will carry the notation that they have completed the Preparatory Program for Business.

Courses included in the Program:

Economics 204, 205, 303, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 317

English 210

Mathematics 101, 115, 120, 121, 150 or 220, 328

Psychology 316

Philosophy 103

Political Science 102 (or 321, an option for students entering college prior to 1980)

Theatre 107 (or 108, an option for students entering college prior to 1980)

Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC)

Through a special cross-town arrangement, Agnes Scott students may participate in the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps and in the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at the Georgia Institute of Technology. A student who completes one of these programs will qualify as a commissioned officer and will be ordered to active duty in the United States Air Force, the United States Navy, or the United States Marine Corps.

A student may apply to either program at the beginning of her freshman year or may choose to apply at the end of the sophomore year. While a student is enrolled in one of these programs, she will attend certain courses at Georgia Institute of Technology.

Agnes Scott students are eligible to apply for scholarships under both the Air Force and the Navy programs. Scholarships cover all educational expenses at Agnes Scott.

Additional information about either program is available from the respective ROTC units at the Georgia Institute of Technology or from the Office of the Dean of the College at Agnes Scott.

PREPARATION FOR GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDY

A liberal arts program with sound education in basic disciplines is considered the best preparation for most graduate and professional study. During her four years at Agnes Scott, a student may satisfy requirements for the B.A. degree and at the same time prepare for graduate study or for entrance into such professional schools as architecture, law, medicine, dentistry, business, journalism, social service, and education.

A student planning to earn an advanced degree should confer with her major professor and the Dean of the College as early as possible in order to be aware of any specific courses needed. Information regarding graduate and professional schools, fellowships, and standard examinations may be obtained in the office of the Dean of the College. Law schools, medical schools, and some graduate schools require special admission tests. Arrangements for taking these tests are the responsibility of the student.

Medicine

The premedical program at Agnes Scott College allows a student to meet the requirements for admission to medical school while majoring in any academic discipline of her choice. Almost all medical schools recognize the importance of a four-year liberal arts education. Minimum requirements for admission to medical school can generally be satisfied with two years of chemistry and one year each of biology, physics, and English. Many institutions require mathematics through calculus and some advise courses in the behavioral sciences. A student planning a premedical program should consult the Dean of the College who serves as premedical adviser. The annual bulletin of the Association of American Medical Colleges is helpful in listing medical school admission requirements. Arrangements can be made to take the Medical College Admission Test at local centers.

Law

The normal preparation for law school is a four-year course of study in the liberal arts. No specific courses are prescribed for a prelaw program. In order to qualify for admission to law school, a student must present a strong undergraduate record in any major of her choice. The Law School Admission Test is required. Students interested in studying law should consult the Dean of the College and their major professors. Copies of the Prelaw Handbook are on file in the office of the Dean.

Business and Management

A major in almost any academic discipline is suitable preparation for graduate programs in business and management. Graduate schools are generally interested in students who have strong liberal arts programs. Students should have mathematics through calculus and at least introductory work in economics and accounting.

Return To College Program

The Return to College Program provides, for women whose education has been interrupted, the opportunity to work toward the Agnes Scott degree. It is designed for qualified persons who have not had college work and for those who have already acquired credits toward the B.A. degree. The program is available also to those who prefer to pursue a course of study as unclassified (non-degree) students; these students are permitted to earn a maximum of 36 quarter hours of credit at Agnes Scott.

Admission is possible in the fall, winter, and spring quarters. Requirements include (1) an application, filed preferably at least a month in advance of the opening of the quarter; (2) an interview at the college; and (3) a transcript of record from each school or college previously attended. Inquiries regarding admission should be directed to the admissions office.

All students enroll in regular college courses, and classified students meet the same course requirements for the degree as other undergraduates. Students in this program are not subject, however, to the usual minimum course load requirements nor are they expected to complete work for the degree in the usual four years. Time limits for completion for the degree are: (a) four years, if initially classified as a junior; (b) six years, if initially classified as a sophomore, and (c) eight years, if initially classified as a freshman.

Students who have obtained a college degree may be admitted to the Return to College Program as unclassified students. Before registering for a second quarter of work, they must present for approval a statement of a proposed program of study to the Assistant Dean of the College, who is special adviser to students in the Return to College Program.

Requests for exception to any of the above requirements may be directed to the Committee on Academic Standards and must be approved by the Faculty.

Financial aid is available to Return to College students, whether part-time or full-time. Information may be obtained from the Assistant Dean of the College and the Director of Financial Aid.

Academic Regulations

Classification of Students

A classified student is one who has been admitted as a candidate for the Agnes Scott degree. Students are classified as follows:

Freshmen: students who have earned less than 36 quarter hours of credit.

Sophomores: students who have earned at least 36 quarter hours of credit and a cumulative quality point ratio of at least 0.50.

Juniors: students who have earned at least 84 quarter hours of credit and a cumulative quality ratio of at least 0.75.

Seniors: students who have earned at least 132 quarter hours of credit and a cumulative quality point ratio of at least 0.91.

Students who present advanced standing credits will be classified during their initial quarter at Agnes Scott on the basis of credit hours alone.

An unclassified student is one who is not a candidate for the Agnes Scott degree. Such students are primarily of three kinds: (a) adults not working toward a degree, (b) transient students working toward a degree at another institution, and (c) high school students on a joint enrollment program. Unclassified students are permitted to earn a maximum of 36 quarter hours of credit at Agnes Scott. Requests for exception must be directed to the Committee on Academic Standards. Unclassified students who wish to become candidates for the degree must submit a petition to the Office of Admissions before completing 36 quarter hours of credit. Once a student has been given classified status, she may not return to unclassified status.

Registration

All students must register for classes on the dates announced in the College Calendar. A $10 fee is charged for late registration. No student is allowed to register after the tenth day of the quarter.

Students already in residence pre-register for the next session during Course Selection Week in the spring quarter. Entering freshmen receive instructions from the Office of the Dean of the College in the early summer and file a preliminary selection of courses in July. They consult special advisers for final course selection after they arrive in September. Entrance into any course is prohibited after the tenth day of the quarter.

A course of study which has been approved may be changed only in accordance with posted instructions. No new course may be elected after the first ten days of a quarter, and no shift from letter-grade basis to pass-fail or pass-fail to letter-grade may be made after the first ten days of a quarter.

No course may be dropped after the first month of each quarter. Dates are posted in September.

Withdrawal

Course Loads

The normal academic load is from fourteen to eighteen hours per quarter. Students may take a minimum load of twelve hours for a total of three out of the six quarters comprising the freshman and sophomore years. Juniors and seniors are permitted to elect one quarter of thirteen hours each year, provided the total number of hours elected for the year is at least forty-two. Students may petition the Committee on Academic Standards for other exceptions to the normal course load. Students in the Return to College Program are not subject to the limitations for minimum course loads.

Auditing

Classified students may audit courses with written permission from the Dean of the College. The student's previous academic record and the number of credit hours being carried are factors considered. Permission for auditing is given during the first two class days of each quarter.

Class Attendance

Attendance at academic sessions is not mandatory, with the exceptions noted below, but the responsibility for work missed is entirely that of the individual student.

Attendance at all academic appointments is required of students on academic probation and of all freshmen during the fall quarter. These students are permitted one cut in each class during the quarter.

Attendance at tests announced at least a week in advance is mandatory.

Examinations

Examinations are self-scheduled and are held at the end of each quarter. With the exception of a few examinations scheduled in advance because of the nature of the course or the size of the class, a student may take any examination that she chooses at any of the times set for examinations.

A student who because of illness is unable to complete examinations during the regular period may take the examinations in question at the time scheduled for re-examinations. Re-examinations are permitted in the case of conditional failure and are given in the first week of the next quarter.

Grades

Grades indicating the student's standing in any course are officially recorded as follows: A, excellent; B, good; C, average; D, passing; E, conditional failure with the privilege of re-examination; F, failure. Grades for courses taken on a pass-fail basis are recorded as P or F.

A student may elect a total of ten quarter hours of regular course work on a pass-fail basis during the junior and senior years. Courses taken to meet the distribution and specific requirements for the degree, regular courses in the student's major subject, and certain courses in the teacher education program may not be elected on a pass-fail basis.

All grades on field experiences (internships) will be recorded as either pass or fail. This option is in addition to the ten quarter hours of pass-fail work in regular courses. It also constitutes an exception to the general rule that no work in the major department may be taken on a pass-fail basis. A student's intention to elect pass-fail courses must be signified to the Registrar by the tenth day of the quarter.

Grades (except for courses taken on pass-fail basis) are evaluated by a quality point system: A = 3 quality points per quarter hour, B = 2, C = 1, D = 0. For a statement of the grade and quality point requirements for class standing and for the degree, see sections on the classification of students and requirements for the degree.

Quarter grades, in year or two-quarter courses are progress reports only. Credit and quality points are based on the final official grade and are given only on completion of the entire course.

Grade reports are issued to students at the end of each quarter. They are sent to parents who have filed a written request and whose daughters are dependents according to Internal Revenue Code of 1954, Section 152.

Graduation Honors

A student is eligible to graduate With Honor if she attains a cumulative grade point ratio of 2.40 and has maintained this minimum level of work while classified as a Junior and Senior (figured on a cumulative basis for all work completed while so classified). It is understood that in figuring the cumulative basis for the work while classified as a Junior and Senior, year grades will be used in the case of year-long courses rather than progress grades as reported by the quarter. In the case of students on leaves of absence, this will be figured on the basis of the last six quarters in residence. A student must receive also the recommendation of her major department.

A student is eligible to graduate With High Honor if she attains a cumulative grade point ratio of 2.70 and has maintained this minimum level of work while classified as a Junior and Senior (figured on a cumulative basis for all work completed while so classified). It is understood that in figuring the cumulative basis for the work while classified as a Junior and Senior, year grades will be used in the case of year-long courses rather than progress grades as reported by the quarter. In the case of students on leaves of absence, this will be figured on the basis of the last six quarters in residence. A student must have completed also a minimum of 6 credit hours of independent study distributed over two quarters and receive the recommendation of her major department.

Academic Review and Discipline

The work of each student is reviewed at the end of every quarter. A student whose work is unsatisfactory will be placed on academic probation. Academic probation serves as a warning to the student that her work must improve. A student whose work continues to be unsatisfactory may be subject to academic dismissal.

A full-time student will be subject to academic dismissal if she fails to earn a minimum of thirty quarter hours of degree credit in any academic session. She will be subject to academic dismissal if she fails to make appropriate class standing for two successive years or if she has been on academic probation for two consecutive quarters.

An unclassified student's eligibility to continue her work at Agnes Scott will be determined by the Dean of the College, subject to confirmation by the Committee on Academic Standards.

Acceleration

A student may receive permission from the Dean of the College and her major department to complete degree requirements in nine, ten, or eleven quarters. This acceleration may be accomplished in any of the following ways: (1) entering with Advanced Placement credits based on College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement Examinations; (2) carrying excess course loads during regular sessions; (3) attending either summer sessions at other institutions or an Agnes Scott summer program.

Summer School

Students may attend summer sessions in accredited colleges and universities. Their courses must be approved in advance by the Dean of the College.

A maximum of eighteen quarter hours will be approved for a single summer session, and a maximum total of thirty quarter hours of summer work may be counted toward the Agnes Scott degree. A grade of C or above must be made in each course.

Academic Counseling

Academic counseling is coordinated in the Office of the Dean of the College. Each new student, prior to her arrival on the campus, is assigned to a faculty adviser. Where possible, this adviser teaches in the student's area of special interest and works with the student until she declares a major at the end of the sophomore year. The Class Dean for Freshmen and Sophomores coordinates this program.

The chairman of her major department becomes a student's academic adviser for the junior and senior years. Supplementary counseling of upperclassmen is the responsibility of the Assistant Dean.

The Dean and her assistants, members of the Faculty, and the Director of Career Planning share in advising students and alumnae about plans for graduate and professional programs.

Courses of Instruction 1981-1982

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS AND ABBREVIATIONS

Course Numbers

Courses are numbered according to level of difficulty. One hundred-level courses are intended primarily for freshmen and sophomores; 200-level courses are intended primarily for sophomores, but in some cases are open to freshmen by permission; 300-level courses are intended primarily for juniors and seniors, but in some cases are open to sophomores by permission; 400-level courses are intended for seniors.

Certain course numbers are used in each department for special programs. The number 190 is used to designate Freshman and Sophomore Seminars, 410 is assigned to Special Study, and 490 to Independent Study. The number 450 is used for all internships and field experiences.

Course Notations

Courses which are offered for one quarter only are designated by f, w, or s (fall, winter, or spring) following the course number. Course numbers followed by hyphenated letters (for example, f-w) indicate courses extending through two quarters. Course numbers without letters indicate courses extending throughout the year. No final grade or credit is given until the entire course is completed; quarter grades in such courses are progress reports only.

Summer Study Abroad courses are designated by SG, SE, SR (Summer in Germany, England, Rome) following the course number. A course number followed by SUS designates Agnes Scott Summer Study courses in the United States.

Course Credit

The calendar for the academic year consists of three quarters, and the unit of credit is the quarter hour. Each 50-minute lecture period a week represents credit of one quarter hour. A course which carries credit of three quarter hours is scheduled for three lecture periods a week for one quarter. A course which carries five quarter hours of credit is scheduled for five lecture periods a week unless indicated. A course which carries credit of nine quarter hours is scheduled for three periods a week for the academic year. Course credits are indicated in parentheses following the course title.

Laboratories are usually three-hour periods, and a three-hour laboratory per week is equivalent to one lecture period. For courses with laboratories, the number of hours lecture and the number of hours laboratory work a week are designated by LEC, LAB. A course which carries credit of four quarter hours and is scheduled for three lecture periods and one three-hour laboratory per week is designated by 3 LEC, 1 LAB.

Schedule of Classes

The courses of instruction will meet in accordance with the Schedule of Classes which is available in the Office of the Registrar prior to Course Selection Week. Classes are scheduled Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. Monday, Wednesday, Friday classes; Monday through Friday classes; and classes after 1 p.m. are fifty minutes in length unless otherwise specified. Tuesday, Thursday morning classes are seventy-five minutes in length unless otherwise specified.

300-level courses are open to sophomores by permission of the department chairman.

340f,w,s. Advanced Painting (3, 6, or 9)

Creative work in various painting media. Particular attention given to individual expression and to aesthetic consideration of the picture structure.

Prerequisite: 240 or 241 or 242 Mr. Staven

370f,w,s. Advanced Plastic Design (3, 6, or 9)

Individual problems in pottery or ceramic sculpture.

Prerequisite: 272 or permission of the department chairman

440f,w,s. Advanced Graphic Design (3, 6, or 9)

Special problems of two-dimensional design with work in various media.

Prerequisite: three quarter hours of 340 and permission of the department chairman

Open to art majors only The Department

470f,w,s. Advanced Three-Dimensional Design

(3, 6, or 9)

Special problems of three-dimensional design with work in various media.

Prerequisite: three quarter hours of 370 and permission of the department chairman

Open to art majors only

Bible and Religion

Professors: Kwai S. Chang (Chairman)

Mary B. Sheats

Visiting Professor: Ludwig R. Dewitz

Visiting Assistant Professor: Emanuel Feldman

The Department of Bible and Religion offers students the opportunity of broadening their knowledge and understanding of the religious dimension of life, with special emphasis on the Judaeo-Christian tradition.

The degree requirement for a course in biblical literature may be met by completion of Bible and Religion 200 or 201. Students considering the possibility of majoring in Bible and Religion are strongly urged to take 201 as the basic course.

A student who majors in this department may focus either on Bible, choosing a minimum of 20 hours on the 300 or 400 level in the biblical field and the remainder of her major hours in either Bible or Religion, or she may concentrate on Religion, choosing a minimum of 20 hours on the 300 or 400 level in the field of Religion and the remainder of her major hours in either Bible or Religion.

The department recommends that students concentrating in Bible take Greek 203, and that those planning to do graduate work in theology take German. Courses in classical literatures, philosophy, psychology, and sociology are recommended as electives for the enrichment of the major.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

200 or 201

200f or w or s. Approach to Biblical Literature

(5)

A study of the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament. An examination of their distinctive concepts and practices.

Not open to students who have had 201

Mr. Chang, Mrs. Sheats

201. Old and New Testaments

(9)

An introduction to the study of the Old and New Testaments, including the Apocrypha, with emphasis on history, literature, and religious teachings. Questions of human identity, purpose, and destiny are explored.

Not open to students who have had 200

Mr. Chang, Mrs. Sheats

- 303w. The Ancient Middle East (5)
The development of pre-classical civilizations in the Fertile Crescent (including ancient Mesopotamia and Egypt) as known archaeologically and from extra-biblical literature, with particular attention to Palestine during Old Testament times.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
Mr. Dewitz
- 304w. The World of the New Testament (5)
Background studies in extra-biblical history, literature, and art of the New Testament period. Relevant findings of archaeology are used.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
Mr. Dewitz
- 307f. American Religious Thought (5)
A study of religion as a factor in a developing culture. Examination of creative American religious thinkers. Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish practices and beliefs in the United States today. The relationship of organized religious movements to current national problems.
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
- 310f. Eastern Religious Traditions (5)
An introduction to the literature, beliefs, and practices of Hinduism, Theravada Buddhism, and Islam in India; Confucianism and Taoism in China; Mahayana Buddhism and Shinto in Japan.
Mr. Chang
- 311s. Mysticism East and West (5)
A study of the meaning and significance of mystical experience within the contexts of Hinduism, Buddhism, and Christianity.
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
Mr. Chang
- 321s. Jewish Faith and Practice (3)
A study of the Jewish people and religion from Talmudic times to the present.
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
Mr. Feldman
- 323f. The Hebrew Prophets (5)
A study of the prophetic movement in Israel to show the distinctive attitudes and concepts of prophetic religion.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
Mrs. Sheats
- 327w. The Letters of Paul (5)
An historical and literary study of the life and thought of the Apostle Paul as reflected in his letters and in the book of Acts.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
Mrs. Sheats
- 328s. Wisdom, Poetry, and Apocalypse (5)
A study of three distinctive types of writing from the Ancient Near East, with a consideration of literature from the Old Testament canon, the Apocrypha, the Pseudepigrapha, and Babylonian and Egyptian sources.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
Mrs. Sheats

- 335s. The Four Gospels (5)
A study of the words, acts, and person of Jesus as presented in the gospel accounts.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mrs. Sheats
- 340w. Biblical Theology (5)
A topical study of the major religious concepts of the Old and New Testaments, chiefly those of God, human beings, sin, and salvation. Opportunity is given for exploring presuppositions of biblical theology in current writings.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mrs. Sheats
- 345f (Philosophy 315). Philosophy of Religion (5)
Prerequisite: Bible and Religion 200 or 201; or one of the following:
Philosophy 101, 102, 105, 106, 206, 209, (207, 208)
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
- 352f. Christian Thought in the Renaissance and Reformation (5)
A study of significant contributors to the development of Western religious thought, from Wyclif through Calvin.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mrs. Sheats
- 360w. Contemporary Theology (5)
A study of contemporary trends in Western religious thought, with special emphasis on some major writers such as Barth, Bultmann, and Tillich.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201 Mr. Chang
- 363f. Seminar in Religious Studies (5)
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
- 365s. Introduction to Christian Ethics (5)
A study of the nature, methods, and basic issues of Christian ethics, with special attention to the relation between theology and conduct.
Prerequisite: 200 or 201
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Chang
- 410f,w,s. Special Study (3 or 5)
Supervised research in a selected area. The Department
- 490. Independent Study (6-10)
Independent research is arranged under the supervision of a member of the department. Results are presented in written form. The Department

Biology

Professor:	Sandra T. Bowden (Chairman)
Assistant Professors:	Dale L. Hoyt John F. Pilger Harry Wistrand
Instructor:	M. Eloise Brown Carter

The program for majors in the Department of Biology is designed so that students acquire knowledge in several fields of modern biology. Students are advised to plan individual programs that include studies in the following areas: functional morphology of cells and tissues, microbial organisms, lower and higher plants and animals, patterns and mechanisms of heredity and evolution, physiology of cells and organisms, taxonomy, and ecology. In addition, students are advised to elect in their major programs one or more field courses. The department recommends that all biology majors take Mathematics 150. Students planning to attend graduate school are urged to take Chemistry 250s, Physics 210-211, and Mathematics 120-121. Other courses recommended for graduate school are Chemistry 300 and 353, and German or French. Students interested in medicine and in health-related professions should consult the Dean of the College.

A student may be exempted from 100, 102, and 105 if she receives a passing score on each of the appropriate exemption tests administered by the department.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

100, 102, 105, 206, 303, 310, 411; 306 or 312

Chemistry 110, 250f-w

Biology 203 not applied toward minimum 45-hour major

There is a $15.00 fee for required weekend field trips for biology courses.

100f or w. Introduction to Biology

Fundamental concepts of major areas of modern biology: structures and functions of biological molecules, cell structure and functions, inheritance in eucaryotes and in procaryotes, development of plants and animals, evolution, ecology. Prerequisite to all other courses in biology. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

The Department

102w or s. Botany

(4)

The functional morphology of vascular plants, growth regulation, taxonomy and evolution, plant ecology. A brief survey of the morphology, ecological roles, and economic significance of selected representatives of major divisions. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Mrs. Bowden, Mrs. Carter

105w or s. Zoology

(4)

Morphology and physiology of animals with a survey of the major phyla. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

The Department

200-level courses are open by permission of the department to freshmen who meet the prerequisites.

201f. Ecology

The basic principles of ecology with lectures and field work emphasizing the relationships of animals and plants in natural habitats. Land, fresh water, and salt water environments are considered. 2 LEC, 2 LAB, 1 weekend field trip

Prerequisite: 102, 105

Mrs. Carter

- 202s. Plant Taxonomy (4)
Principles of classification, identification, and nomenclature of vascular plants native to this locality. Introduction to techniques for collecting and preserving specimens. 2 LEC, 2 LAB, 1 weekend field trip
Prerequisite: 102 Mrs. Carter
- 203s. Genetics, Evolution, and Man (3)
A basic study of heredity and evolution with emphasis on man. Among the topics discussed are race, behavior, intelligence, and genetic engineering.
Prerequisite or corequisite: 102 or 105
Not open to biology majors or to students who have had Biology 303
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Wistrand
- 206f. Cell Biology (4)
An introduction to cellular and subcellular structure and function. 2 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 102, 105 Mr. Pilger
- 208w. Histology (4)
The microscopic anatomy of animal tissues. Laboratory includes practical microtechnique and histochemistry. 3 LEC, 1 LAB
Prerequisite: 102, 105 Mr. Hoyt
- 301f. Microbiology (5)
A basic course in the biology of microorganisms with emphasis on bacteria. Microbial structure, metabolism, genetics, taxonomy, and ecology are introduced. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 206; Chemistry 110, 250f-w Mrs. Bowden
- 302f. Evolution (3)
The study of processes and patterns of adaptation and species formation.
Prerequisite: 303 Mr. Wistrand
- The following 300-level courses are open to sophomores by permission of the chairman: 303, 304, 306, 307.
- 303w. Genetics (5)
Principles of structure, function, and transmission of hereditary materials in pro- and eukaryotic organisms. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 206 Mr. Wistrand
- 304f. Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates (5)
The study of the major organ systems of vertebrates. Laboratory includes dissections of selected vertebrates. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 105 Mr. Hoyt
- 305w. Animal Physiology (5)
A comparative study of the physiology of the digestive, circulatory, excretory, nervous, muscle, endocrine, and reproductive systems of animals. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 304
Prerequisite or corequisite: Chemistry 250f-w Mr. Hoyt
- 306w. Developmental Biology (5)
Morphological and developmental processes in the ontogeny of animals. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 206 Mr. Pilger

- 307s. Invertebrate Zoology (5)
Comparative anatomy, systematics, and evolution of invertebrates. Laboratory emphasis on the functional morphology and ecology of aquatic forms. 3 LEC, 2 LAB, 1 weekend field trip
Prerequisite: 105 Mr. Pilger
- 308s. Animal Behavior (4)
Principles of the development, causation, and function of behavior in non-human animals. 3 LEC, 1 LAB
Prerequisite: 303 Mr. Wistrand
- 310s. Cellular Physiology (5)
The study of cellular energetics, metabolism, metabolic regulation, excitability and contactility, and cell growth and division. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 206; Chemistry 110, 250f-w Mrs. Bowden
- 311w. Plant Physiology (5)
Studies of plant cellular constituents, water relations, mineral nutrition, metabolism, growth regulation, and photophysiology. Emphasis is on the physiology of seed plants. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 102
Prerequisite or corequisite: Chemistry 250f-w
Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mrs. Bowden
- 312w. Plant Diversity and Evolution (5)
An evolutionary approach to the study of the morphology of bacteria, fungi, algae, bryophytes, and selected groups of vascular plants. Investigations involve living materials. 3 LEC, 2 LAB
Prerequisite: 102
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mrs. Bowden
- 314SUS. Desert Biology (5)
The study of the adaptations of plants and animals to hot, arid environments of the western United States. A three-week field trip to the desert; dates to be determined. Course limited to nine students.
Prerequisite: 105 and permission of the instructor
Offered summer 1982 Mr. Wistrand
- 315SUS. Marine Biology (5)
The biology of the sea as exemplified by organisms and ecology of oceanic, coastal, and estuarine waters. Four weeks; dates to be determined. Course limited to eight students.
Prerequisite: 102, 105, and permission of the instructor
Offered summer 1981 Mr. Pilger
- 410f,w,s. Special Study (3-5)
Intensive study of an area of biology by a senior major under the supervision of a staff member. Designed to support the individual major's special interests.
Prerequisite: permission of the department The Department
- 411f. Senior Seminar (2)
The study of specialized subject areas of biology chosen by the biology staff. Each student reviews the literature, prepares, and presents a seminar on a selected topic.
Open to senior biology majors only The Department
- 490. Independent Study (6-10)
Independent laboratory and/or field research with supervision by a member of the department. Thesis is required and a seminar presentation is recommended.
Admission to the program is granted by the Committee on Independent Study. Recommendation by the department for admission to the course is necessary. Departmental recommendation is based on the student's choice of a suitable research project, potential for biological research, and coursework background. The Department

Chemistry

Professors: Alice J. Cunningham (Chairman)
 Julia T. Gary
Associate Professor: Paul M. Kuznesof
Instructor: Susan S. Connell
 additional appointment to be made

The academic program of the Department of Chemistry, approved by the American Chemical Society, is designed to give students a thorough grounding in the principles and applications of modern chemistry as well as extensive practical experience with research-quality instruments. The curriculum is structured to serve chemistry majors, majors in chemistry-related disciplines, and non-science majors.

Students who are planning to major in chemistry should consult with a member of the department early in their college careers. They should elect, if possible, Chemistry 101-102-110 and Mathematics 120-121 in the freshman year and complete Physics 210-211 before the junior year.

Exemption from the introductory Chemistry 101-102 may be considered if a student has: an Advanced Placement score of 4 or 5; or high school chemistry and a satisfactory score on the departmental exemption examination; or previous credit for a college chemistry course at the introductory level. In all cases, evidence of prior laboratory experience comparable to that gained in Chemistry 101-102 must be presented.

Students planning for certification by the American Chemical Society must complete the minimum requirements for a major, as shown below, and the equivalent of an additional six hours of study or research at the advanced level in chemistry, physics, or mathematics, as approved by the department. This additional work must include at least one credit hour of laboratory work in chemistry. A reading knowledge of a modern foreign language, preferably German, is recommended.

The department strongly recommends that all majors complete a second year of calculus (Mathematics 201) prior to or during the junior year. Majors are encouraged also to elect courses in computer programming (Mathematics 150), statistics and probability (Mathematics 115 or 328), differential equations (Mathematics 309), and electronics (Physics 343).

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

101-102 (or 100), 110, 250, 301, 302, 303, 326, 332, 333, 351
Mathematics 120-121
Physics 210-211

101f. Fundamental Concepts of the Properties of Matter (4)

Introduction to the major concepts required for an understanding of chemical phenomena. Stoichiometry; atomic and molecular structure; properties of gases, liquids, solids, and solutions; and energetics of chemical processes. Laboratory methods of quantitative and qualitative analysis. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Not open to students who have had 100

Mr. Kuznesof, Mrs. Connell

102w. Introduction to Energetics, Structure, and Reactivity (4)

A continuation of Chemistry 101. Energetics, kinetics, equilibria, the development of modern atomic theory, chemical bonding, and descriptive chemistry of selected elements. Laboratory methods of quantitative and qualitative analysis. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 101

Not open to students who have had 100

Mr. Kuznesof, Mrs. Connell

110s. Introduction to Analytical Chemistry (5)

A thorough treatment of chemical equilibria. Fundamental principles and methods of separation and analysis. 3 LEC, 2 LAB

Prerequisite: 102

Miss Cunningham, Mrs. Connell

200f. Computational Methods in Chemistry (3)

Selected topics in calculus, statistics, and computer applications, as applied in various areas of chemistry.

Prerequisite: 101-102 (or 100), 110; Mathematics 120-121

Mathematics 201 recommended

Miss Cunningham

250 or 250f-w. Introductory Organic Chemistry (12 or 8)

The chemistry of the common functional groups with underlying theory. Students not majoring in chemistry may take 250f-w for credit of 8 quarter hours. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 102

300f. Fundamentals of Physical Biochemistry (3)

An introduction to the physicochemical principles of biological processes, with emphasis on bioenergetics and enzyme kinetics.

Prerequisite: 110, 250

Not open to students who have had 302 or 303

Miss Cunningham

301f. Basic Quantum Chemistry (4)

A study of quantum theory as applied in chemistry, including structure and spectral relationships. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 110, 250; Mathematics 120-121; Physics 210-211

Miss Cunningham

302w. Chemical Thermodynamics (4)

General principles of thermodynamics, equilibria, and statistical mechanics. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 301

Miss Cunningham

303s. Chemical Dynamics (4)

A study of rate processes and the methods of chemical kinetics. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 301

Mr. Kuznesof

326w-s. Modern Analytical Chemistry (6)

An advanced study of the instrumental and theoretical approaches for complete analysis. 2 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 300 or 301

Miss Cunningham

332w. Inorganic Chemistry: Principles of Structure and Reactivity (4)

Ionic interactions in solids, theory and energetics of the covalent bond, molecular structure, acid-base concepts, non-aqueous solvents. Laboratory emphasis on synthesis and physicochemical characterization of inorganic compounds. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 301

Prerequisite or corequisite: 302

Mr. Kuznesof

333s. Inorganic Chemistry: A Systematic Survey (4)

Coordination complexes, descriptive chemistry of the d- and f-block metals and main group elements, selected topics in organometallic chemistry and bioinorganic chemistry. Laboratory emphasis on synthesis and physicochemical characterization of inorganic compounds. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 332

Prerequisite or corequisite: 303

Mr. Kuznesof

351f. Organic Qualitative Analysis (4)

A systematic study of the isolation, classification, and identification of organic compounds. 2 LEC, 2 LAB

Prerequisite: 250

Prerequisite or corequisite: 301

352w. Structure and Reactivity of Organic Compounds (4)

An advanced examination of the mechanisms of organic reactions with supporting evidence from stereochemistry, chemical kinetics, and spectroscopy. Increased independence and utilization of modern instrumentation and apparatus in the laboratory. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 250, 301

353s. Bio-Organic Chemistry (3)

A detailed study of the fundamental chemistry of organic molecules of biological importance. Emphasis on enzyme mechanisms and the reactions of metabolism.

Prerequisite: 250

410f,w,s. Special Study (3)

Open to seniors with permission of the department

The Department

490. Independent Study (6-10)

Independent research conducted under the supervision of a member of the department. Thesis is required. Seminar presentation of results is recommended.

Admission to the program is granted by the Committee on Independent Study. Departmental recommendation for admission to the program is necessary and depends on choice of a suitable research problem, demonstrated potential for chemical research, and student motivation for pursuing the laboratory and non-laboratory aspects of the project.

Classical Languages and Literatures

Professor: Elizabeth G. Zenn (Chairman)
Associate Professor: Gail Cabisius
Assistant Professor: Alice L. Levine

Course offerings permit a major in Greek, or in Latin, or in Classical Languages and Literatures. Latin in college is advised for all Greek majors. Greek in college is advised for all students doing major work in Latin. A major in Classical Languages and Literatures consisting of courses in both Greek and Latin can be arranged.

Greek

Latin

201, 280, 281, 282, 351

Greek101. Elementary (9)

The essentials of forms and syntax, reading of selections from Plato, writing Greek.

Credit awarded only if followed by the intermediate-level course (9 quarter hours) or if taken simultaneously with or after completion of the language requirement. Miss Zenn

201f. Intermediate (3)Plato: Apology and Crito, with selections from other writings of Plato.

Prerequisite: 101

Credit awarded if followed by 202 or 203 Miss Levine

202w-s. Homer (6)Iliad, selected books.

Prerequisite: 201

Miss Levine

203w-s. New Testament Greek (6)

A study of Luke and other writers.

Prerequisite: 201

The Department

301f. Greek Tragedy (3)

Euripides: selected plays.

Prerequisite: 202

Alternate years: offered 1981-82

Classical Courses in English

150. Classical Civilization	(9)
The development of Greek and Roman civilization. Indebtedness of the modern world to Greece and Rome in the fields of language and literature, religion and philosophy, art and architecture, government and law.
May not be counted toward a major in the Classical Languages and Literatures department
	Miss Levine
160w. Introduction to Classical Archaeology	(3)
Archaeological aims and methods through focus on evidence from representative sites.
	Miss Zenn
170s. Women in Antiquity	(3)
Women's roles in the society, religion, and literature of ancient Greece and Rome.
	Miss Cabisius
309w. Classical Mythology	(3)
A study of mythical configurations: creation myths, divine archetypes, the trickster, the hero cycle.

Modern psychological and literary approaches to the science of mythology.

Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor

Miss Cabisius

310f. Classical Drama (3)

The origins and development of classical drama. Representative plays of the Greek and Roman dramatists.

Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor

Miss Zenn

314s. Greek Thought (3)

The development of Greek thought in an historical context.

Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor

Miss Zenn

318f (History 341). Greek History (5)

Political history of Greece from the Bronze Age through the Hellenistic period, with emphasis upon the development of Athenian democracy; consideration of Greek political theory of the fifth and fourth centuries, including the reading in translation of selections from Thucydides, Plato, and Aristotle.

Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor

Alternate years: offered 1981-82

Miss Cabisius

319f (History 342). Roman History (5)

Political and social institutions of the Roman Republic, formation of the Augustan principate, imperial history to the fall of the Western Empire.

Open to sophomores with permission of the instructor

Alternate years: not offered 1981-82

Miss Cabisius

340SR. Roman Art and Architecture (5)

An introduction to the Roman legacy in architecture, sculpture, painting, and the minor arts, with brief consideration of Greek precedents, especially of the Hellenistic period.

Offered summer 1982

Miss Zenn

341s (Art 319). Greek and Roman Art and Architecture (5)

An historical survey of the art and architecture of the pre-Greek and early Greek cultures of the Aegean, of Greece, and of Rome through the period of Constantine.

Economics

Associate Professors: Edward C. Johnson
William H. Weber, III (Chairman)
Instructor: Mary K. Bumgarner

Economics is the study of the production and distribution of goods and services and of the various institutions through which this has been and is carried on now. Current economic theory is taught with reference to past thought and theory so as to emphasize the evolutionary character of the development of economics as a social science. Methods of theory construction and analysis useful in the task of understanding both the social implications of any form of economic system and the management and organization of enterprises, public or private, are taught.

Economics 204 and 205 are prerequisite to all 300-level courses except Economics 303, 309, and 311 each of which requires only 204. Certain 300-level courses have prerequisites in addition to Economics 204 and 205. All students majoring in Economics are required to take Economics 303, 306, and 332, as well as a year of calculus and a course in statistics.

A student interested in study relating economics, history, and political science is invited to consider the interdepartmental major in International Relations.

Students planning graduate work in either economics or business are advised to take two years of calculus as well as an introductory course in computer programming. The department offers a number of courses preparatory to a career in business, and of these 311 and 312 (Accounting and Economic Decision Making) are considered essential.

Education

Professor:	Margaret P. Ammons (Chairman)
Lecturers:	Rebecca Fleischman
	Joanne E. Fowler
	Gué P. Hudson
	David V. Martin

The curriculum of the Department of Education is designed to prepare students to teach on the elementary or secondary level. Teacher education at Agnes Scott is a college-wide enterprise and a major in education is not offered.

A student interested in teaching should contact the chairman of the Department of Education no later than the end of her sophomore year to plan her academic program. Students will be advised concerning requirements and assisted in planning necessary courses.

STATE-APPROVED REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFICATION

Students who complete satisfactorily a planned, state-approved program are automatically eligible for a T-4 certificate to teach in Georgia on the elementary or secondary level; or to teach elementary/general music and/or choral music. Students interested in the music certification program should see page 83. Candidates for the elementary certificate must choose the K-4 or 4-8 certificate.

Out-of-state students may meet certification requirements in their respective states. They are urged to study their state requirements at the time of projecting their programs. Copies of the requirements from all states are on file in the Department of Education.

The professional quarter involves an integrated program which includes the study of procedures and materials of instruction, extensive classroom observation and teaching, and advanced study of pupils and school organization.

Summer experience in such programs as Headstart, day care nurseries, and summer schools and camps is encouraged. Rising seniors who have been admitted to the professional quarter are required to participate in a September Practicum. Students will be contacted by a member of the Department of Education so that individual arrangements may be made.

Students in the teacher education program are advised to take the National Teacher's Examination. Examination dates are announced by the Educational Testing Service and are available in the Department of Education.

The curriculum of the Department of English is constructed to give the student a breadth of knowledge and depth of understanding of English and

¹On leave spring quarter 1981-82

American literature and to provide her the opportunity to learn to read literature with perception and delight and to write about it critically and imaginatively.

A student majoring in English is required to take work in medieval literature, sixteenth-century English literature, seventeenth- or eighteenth-century English literature, nineteenth-century English literature, and American literature. She has a choice of courses within each required area and a choice of electives in these or other fields, especially in modern British and American literature, to complete her major hours. In addition to the basic English major the department offers a major in English and Creative Writing and interdepartmental majors in Art History-English Literature and History-English Literature. With the approval of the department a student may also design a program of concentrated study in which she emphasizes her major interests in literature and chooses complementary courses from other disciplines. For example, she may plan a program in medieval studies, Renaissance studies, or American studies. The department provides the opportunity for its majors to study at British universities in the junior year and to participate in internships in the senior year.

All advanced literature courses in the department have as a prerequisite English 211 (9 hours) or one of its equivalents: a combination of English 211 (6 hours) and English 212 (3 hours); a score of 4 or 5 on the College Board Advanced Placement Examination in English Literature; or two 300-level courses in English literature if the student has been exempted from English 211 on the recommendation of her instructor in English 101 or 102.

French

Professor:	Frances C. Calder (Chairman)
Associate Professors:	Claire M. Hubert Huguette D. Kaiser
Assistant Professor:	Christabel P. Braunrot

The Department of French has as its goals accuracy and fluency in the written and spoken language and knowledge and appreciation of the literature and culture of France.

New students who make a satisfactory score on the exemption examination may be exempted from the foreign language requirement for graduation. All new students electing French, depending upon their preparation, will be placed directly in the appropriate French course or will be asked to take a placement test.

French 235 plus an additional French literature course of three or more hours on the 300 level will satisfy the literature requirement for graduation. French 235 is the prerequisite for all French courses on the 300 level.

Students, if qualified, may spend their junior year in France on an approved program. Interested students should consult the department chairman early in their sophomore year.

A French Assistant comes from France each year to live on the French Hall with students desirous of speaking French in the dormitory. To be eligible for residence on the French Hall, students must be enrolled in a French course on or above the intermediate level. Application for residency should be made to the Office of the Dean of Students. "La Table Française" in the dining hall welcomes students on all levels of French proficiency. The French Club involves students in programs of plays, songs, poetry, and slides. The language laboratory is open to all foreign language students.

The department recommends for the French major the following electives in other departments: History 100, 309; Classics 309, 310; English 211; Art 103, 308; Philosophy 206, 209, 309; another foreign language.

235, 305, 336; a minimum of sixteen additional hours on the 300 level

Elective French courses to complete the major should be representative of various centuries and genres.

German

Professor: Gunther Bicknese (Chairman)
Associate Professor: Ingrid E. Wieshofer

Each course offered by the department emphasizes the communicational skills of speaking, understanding, and writing. Linguistic and cultural aspects of the German-speaking world are presented at all levels. In the intermediate and advanced courses, a wide selection of classical and contemporary works in German literature are read.

All teachers in the department are native speakers of German which is the language of instruction in all literature and culture courses. Majors and non-majors alike are encouraged to live on the German Hall, a German-speaking campus community. Qualified students may participate in an intensive seven-week Summer Study Program at the University of Marburg in Germany. This program is offered in alternate years.

Students with a previous background in German will be placed in accordance with their proficiency. Even without such a background, a student may elect German as her major if she enrolls in elementary German as a freshman.

If a student begins the study of German in her sophomore year, she will be able to fulfill the requirements for the major provided she participates in the Summer Study Program in Germany.

Students considering a double major should consult with the department chairman as early as possible.

01, 101, 202, 206-207-208, 221, 222, 223, 301, 304, 401

Two of the following: 305, 306, 307, 308, 350

01. Elementary (9)

Emphasis on speaking and on understanding spoken German, with a sound basis of grammar. Reading and discussion of simple texts.

Credit awarded only if followed by the intermediate-level course (9 quarter hours) or if taken simultaneously with or after completion of the language requirement.

Mr. Bicknese, Miss Wieshofer

101 or 101SG. Intermediate (9)

Practice in spoken German, accompanied by grammar review. Reading and discussion of literary texts.

Prerequisite: 2 entrance credits or 01 Miss Wieshofer

101SG: Marburg, Germany; summer 1981

202w. Phonetics (2)

Theoretical and practical aspects of German pronunciation with intensive drills.

Prerequisite: 01 or equivalent Miss Wieshofer

206f or SG. Composition (2)

A practical course designed to develop fluency in writing German.

Prerequisite: 101

Corequisite: 208

History

Professors: Michael J. Brown
 Penelope Campbell (Chairman)
 Geraldine M. Meroney¹

Associate Professor: John L. Gignilliat
 additional appointment to be made

The history curriculum offers courses in five major areas: Early United States; Modern United States; Early Europe, including Great Britain; Modern Europe; and Africa and Asia. Students who major in history may concentrate in any of these areas, but also must fulfill the distribution requirement which ensures that at least some work will be done in several different fields of historical study.

Periodically the department offers a program of summer study in Great Britain. Accommodations are in British universities and distinguished British professors participate as visiting lecturers. Internships in the Atlanta area can be arranged for history majors. Any interested student should consult with the department chairman as early as practicable in her college career.

100

A minimum of 36 hours on the upper-division level, including at least one course from four of the following groups:

- (a) 305, 306, 308, 335, 336

Mathematics

Professor: Sara L. Ripy (Chairman)
Assistant Professors: Robert A. Leslie
Albert D. Sheffer, Jr.
Donald F. Young

The curriculum in the Department of Mathematics is designed to help students to think clearly and logically; to analyze problems; to understand and be able to use the language, theory, and techniques of mathematics; and to develop skills and acquire mathematical tools needed in the application of mathematics.

The courses offered give mathematics majors a solid background for graduate study, teaching at the secondary school level, and employment in government and industry.

The chairman of the department makes a recommendation about the appropriate placement in a mathematics course for each entering student. Students who wish to be considered for exemption from Mathematics 120 must take the departmental exemption examination prior to the beginning of classes. Students who are planning to major in mathematics should take Mathematics 120-121 in the freshman year.

201, 307, 310, 321, 411

One of the following: 315, 331, 352

One of the following: 309, 312, 328

Mathematics 115 not counted toward the minimum 45-hour major if taken after completion of 328

101f-w or w-s. Finite Mathematics

A study of topics appropriate to the social and management sciences. The topics are selected from set theory, logic, matrix algebra, probability, statistics, linear programming, mathematical models, computer programming, and financial mathematics.

The Department

115f or s. Elementary Statistics

(4)

A study of statistical measures and distributions, probability and its application to statistical inference, decision making, linear correlation, nonparametric methods, and applications in the natural and social sciences.

Miss Ripy, Mr. Young

120f-w. Introductory Calculus, Analytic Geometry I

(6)

A study of limits, derivatives of functions, analytic geometry, techniques of integration, applications.

The Department

121s. Introductory Calculus, Analytic Geometry II

(3)

Continuation of 120.

Prerequisite: 120

The Department

150f or s. Introduction to Computer Programming

(3)

An introduction to computers, principles of operation, BASIC programming language, programming techniques, and applications.

Prerequisite: 101 or 120 or permission of the department chairman

Mr. Leslie, Mr. Sheffer

201 or 201f-w. Differential and Integral Calculus

(9 or 6)

Continuation of 121 to include series, Taylor's expansion, multi-variate calculus, partial differentiation. Students not majoring in mathematics may take 201f-w for credit of 6 quarter hours.

Prerequisite: 120-121

Mr. Sheffer

307f. Linear Algebra

(5)

A study of vector spaces, linear transformations, matrices, and determinants, with applications to systems of linear equations, geometry, and other selected topics.

Prerequisite: 201 or permission of the department chairman

Mr. Young

- 309s. Differential Equations (5)
 A study of first and second order differential equations, applications, linear differential equations, numerical and series solutions, boundary value problems, and existence and uniqueness theorems.
 Prerequisite: 201 Mr. Young
- 310w. Advanced Calculus (5)
 A generalization of elementary calculus to higher dimensions, including a study of multiple integration and derivatives of vector-valued functions, with applications.
 Prerequisite: 307 Mr. Sheffer
- 312f. Introduction to Numerical Analysis (5)
 A study of topics selected from methods of obtaining numerical solutions of equations, systems of linear and non-linear equations, numerical integration and differentiation, curve fitting, and initial and boundary value problems of ordinary differential equations.
 Prerequisite: 150, 201
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Leslie
- 314f. Introduction to Modern Geometry (5)
 Affine, projective, and Euclidean geometries and their postulational development.
 Prerequisite: 201
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Young
- 315f. Topology (5)
 An introduction to topological and metric spaces, continuity, compactness, and connectedness, with special emphasis on the topology of \mathbb{R}^n .
 Prerequisite: 201
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Sheffer
- 321w. Introduction to Modern Abstract Algebra (5)
 A study of important algebraic structures, including groups, rings, integral domains, and fields.
 Prerequisite: 201 Miss Ripy
- 322s. Modern Abstract Algebra (5)
 Continuation of 321.
 Prerequisite: 321 Miss Ripy
- 325w. Mathematical Models and Applications (5)
 A study of mathematics which emphasizes the development of techniques of model building. Applications to illustrate the techniques are drawn principally from the natural and social sciences.
 Prerequisite: 150, 201
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Leslie
- 328f. Mathematical Statistics and Probability (5)
 An introduction to some of the basic statistical methods in the classical theory of inferential statistics, probability theory, estimation, hypothesis testing, and applications.
 Prerequisite: 201
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Leslie
- 331s. Fundamentals of Real Analysis (5)
 A study of real-valued functions of a real variable which includes algebraic and topological properties of the real numbers and a rigorous development of limits, continuity, differentiation, and integration.
 Prerequisite: 307
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Sheffer

- 345s. Topics in Mathematics (5)
 The study of a specialized topic in mathematics. The subject to be examined will be chosen according to the interests of students and faculty. 1981-82: Group theory.
 Prerequisite: permission of the department chairman
 Miss Ripy
- 352s. Theory of Functions of a Complex Variable (5)
 A study of the algebra of complex numbers, analytic functions, elementary functions, linear fractional transformations, mappings, integrals, power series, Laurent series, and residue calculus.
 Prerequisite: 201
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82
 Miss Ripy
- 360w. Topics from the History of Mathematics (3)
 A general outline of the history of mathematics, with a more intensive focus on the development of selected mathematical ideas through the reading of historical and biographical material, including expository papers by noted mathematicians and articles from mathematical journals.
 Prerequisite: ten hours of mathematics at the 300 level or permission of the department chairman

Music

Professors:	Ronald L. Byrnside ¹ (Chairman) Raymond J. Martin
Associate Professor:	Theodore K. Mathews
Assistant Professor:	Jay Fuller
Instructor:	Jean Lemonds
Lecturers:	Carol Lyn Butcher Manuel Diaz Jody Taylor-Harris

The Department of Music provides a curriculum designed to prepare its majors for graduate study and the professional music world. It also seeks to meet the needs of non-majors through a variety of courses in music appreciation and applied music. The guiding philosophy in all instruction is that music is a humanistic, not a mechanistic discipline, and is a central part of a true liberal arts education.

A student interested in teaching music on the elementary or secondary level in the public schools is invited to consider the Teacher Certification Program in Music. This program, offered in conjunction with the Department of Education, prepares a student to teach elementary/general music and/or choral music and leads to a T-4 certificate to teach in the public schools of Georgia.

A student interested in music, art, and theatre is invited to consider the interdepartmental major in Fine Arts.

Performance:

Adequate performing skill, to be tested at the end of the sophomore year
For students concentrating in voice, a performance test on the piano at the end of the sophomore or junior year

Courses:

111 (normally elected the freshmen year), 211, 213, 401
At least one of the following: 301, 302, 304, 305
A minimum of 15 quarter hours in one instrument or voice

Ensemble Experience:

A minimum of two years in the college glee club or the equivalent time in approved accompanying or other college ensemble

300-level courses are open to sophomores by permission of the department chairman.

Music Appreciation

- 106f. Introduction to the Art of Music (3)
Basic concepts and terminology appropriate to various kinds of music. A study of the relationship of music to society and the other arts.
Intended for non-majors Mr. Byrnside
- 107w. Introduction to the Art of Music (3)
A continuation of 106 with special emphasis on the concept of style.
Prerequisite: 106 or permission of the instructor Mr. Byrnside
- 203s. American Music (3)
Music within the United States from colonial times to the present. Instrumental, choral, and song literature are examined in historical and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: 106 or 111
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Mathews
- 204s. History of Jazz (3)
A study of trends, developments, and personalities in American jazz.
Open to freshmen with permission of the instructor
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Mathews
- 206s. Orchestral Music (3)
A study of the orchestra and its literature, drawn from the fields of symphony, ballet, tone poem, and ceremony.
Prerequisite: 106-107 or permission of the instructor
Open to freshmen with permission of the instructor Mr. Mathews
- 207w. Vocal Music (3)
A study of song and operatic and choral music.
Prerequisite: 106-107 or permission of the instructor Mrs. Lemonds

Theory and History of Music

111. Basic Theory and Musicianship (9)

A study of the basic concepts and techniques of tonal harmony. Emphasis is placed on sight-singing, ear training, and the basic concepts of harmony. Mr. Martin

211. Advanced Music Theory (9)

A continuing study of the elements presented in Music 111, with emphasis given to contextual relationships which are explored primarily through written and analysis exercises. Attention is accorded ultimately to traditional musical forms as well as to aspects of musical style as perceived in the works of composers from the Baroque to the twentieth-century periods of music.

Prerequisite: 111 Mr. Mathews

213. Music History Survey (9)

A chronological study of Western art music from the Greek civilization to the present.

Prerequisite: 111 Mr. Byrnside, Mr. Mathews

301f. Medieval and Renaissance Music (3)

The history of music from the early Christian era through the sixteenth century.

Prerequisite: 211 or (for non-majors) 106-107 and permission of the instructor

Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Byrnside

302w. Baroque and Classical Music (3)

A study of the history, literature, and stylistic characteristics of the music from 1600 to 1800.

Mr. Byrnside

304f. Nineteenth-Century Music (3)

Music of the nineteenth century and its relation to artistic life of that time. A study of literature, stylistic characteristics, and composers.

Prerequisite: 211 or (for non-majors) 106-107 and permission of the instructor Mr. Byrnside

305s. Twentieth-Century Music (3)

A study of the characteristics and tendencies of music since 1900. Outstanding composers and significant works will be studied.

Prerequisite: 211 or (for non-majors) 106-107 and permission of the instructor

Not offered 1981-82 Mr. Byrnside

311f. Orchestration (3)

A course to develop skills in reading and analyzing orchestral scores and in arranging music for instruments. Problems in arranging musical scores for ensembles with voices also are considered.

Prerequisite: 111 Mr. Mathews

401w. Senior Seminar for Majors (3)

Topic for 1981-82: To be announced.

Prerequisite: 211, 213 Mr. Byrnside

410f,w,s. Special Study in Music Theory or History (3 or 5)

Specialized study for majors to meet the needs of the individual student.

Church Music

- 208s. History of Church Music (3)
An historical and analytical study of choral and instrumental music used in liturgical and free-church forms of Christian worship from the early church to the present.
Intended primarily for non-majors; open to majors with permission of the instructor
Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Martin
- 209s. Hymnology (3)
A survey of hymn texts and tunes from biblical times to the present.
Intended primarily for non-majors; open to majors with permission of the instructor
Open to freshmen with permission of the instructor
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Martin
- 330f. Choral Conducting (3)
Fundamentals of the technique of choral conducting.
Intended primarily for majors, but open to qualified non-majors
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Martin
- 332w. Church Service Playing (3)
Hymn playing, modulation, improvisation, anthem and solo accompanying. Conducting the choir from the organ console.
Prerequisite: 208 or 330 or permission of the instructor
Intended primarily for majors, but open to qualified non-majors
Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Martin
- 333w. Organ Literature (3)
Analysis and performance of significant organ repertory from the Renaissance to the present. The relation of organ music to organ design and liturgical requirements.
Intended primarily for majors, but open to qualified non-majors
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Martin

Music Education

- 340w. The Elements of Music (3)
An examination of the nature and meaning of the fundamental elements of music. The course is designed for students who are preparing to teach in the elementary classroom.
Not open to students who have had 111 Mr. Mathews
- 345. Piano Pedagogy (4)
A study of methods and materials for teaching piano to children. Class, fall quarter. Practice teaching and seminars continuing through winter and spring quarters.
Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Fuller

Teacher Certification Program in Music

The Department of Music in conjunction with the Department of Education offers a program which prepares a student to teach elementary/general music and/or choral music.

A student wishing to pursue a teaching certificate in music should contact the Department of Music no later than the end of her sophomore year in order to plan her academic program.

STATE-APPROVED REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFICATION

Students who complete satisfactorily a planned, state-approved program are eligible for a T-4 certificate to teach music in the public schools of Georgia at the elementary or secondary level. A candidate may choose to earn a certificate in elementary/general music or choral music or both.

Students wishing to teach in a state other than Georgia are urged to acquire and study the certification requirements for the state in which they wish to teach. This should be done at the time they project their programs.

Rising seniors who have been admitted to the professional quarter must participate in a September Practicum. As far as possible, individual arrangements will be made to accommodate each student.

Students are additionally encouraged to seek extracurricular and summer experiences in which they work with children through music.

Elementary/General Music

Courses required for the major in music

Music 203, 311, 330, 341, 342; 420E or 430E; 421E or 431E

Education 201 or 202, 380, 440E or 440S

Choral Music

Courses required for the major in music

Music 203, 207, 311, 341, 342, 343, 430S, 431S

Education 202, 380, 440S

Participation in approved mixed choir ensembles

Additional requirements for Elementary/General Music and/or Choral Music certification:

1. Four years participation in an ensemble most appropriate to the student's major instrument
2. A minimum of two years participation in a vocal ensemble
3. At least one ensemble experience in an area which makes use of a secondary performance medium
4. A September Practicum

341f. Teaching Music in the Elementary School (5)

A study of techniques, media, and materials used in teaching music in the elementary school classroom. Instruction on classroom instruments (e.g. guitar, recorder) is provided.

Prerequisite or corequisite: 211

342w. Teaching Music in the Secondary School (3)

A study of techniques, media, and materials used in teaching general music, music appreciation, and music theory in the secondary school classroom.

Prerequisite or corequisite: 211

343w. Choral Methods and Materials (2)

A study of techniques, media, and literature used in teaching singing ensembles.

The Professional Quarter

Students are admitted into student teaching only by permission from the Committee on Teacher Education. Its decisions will be based on the demonstrated scholastic and professional aptitude of each individual student as well as on evaluations made by the major professors and instructors in prerequisite courses.

420Es. Student Teaching (10)

Professional experience for students interested in teaching music primarily in the elementary school classroom. Application for student teaching must be made in the winter quarter of the junior year.

Prerequisite: 341, 342; Education 380; September Practicum

Corequisite: 421E; Education 440E

421Es. Problems Seminar (3)

Individual and group study of children and of curriculum based on experiences in 420E.

Corequisite: 420E; Education 440E

430Ss. Student Teaching (10)

Professional experience for students interested in teaching music primarily in the secondary school classroom. Applications for student teaching must be made in the winter quarter of the junior year.

Prerequisite: 341, 342; Education 380; September Practicum

Additional prerequisite for choral music students: 343

Corequisite: 431S; Education 440S

431Ss. Problems Seminar (3)

Individual and group study of children and of curriculum based on experiences in 430S.

Applied Music

Credit: Credit is awarded for applied music offered by the College to students who present evidence of previous training. Courses must be elected in sequential order; each course is a one-quarter course and is offered each quarter. One hour of private lessons, a one-hour class session, and six hours of practice weekly are required. A performance examination will be conducted at the end of each quarter.

Piano

151, 152, 153; 251, 252, 253;
351, 352, 353; 451, 452, 453

Organ

161, 162, 163; 261, 262, 263;
361, 362, 363; 461, 462, 463

Strings

171, 172, 173; 271, 272, 273;
371, 372, 373; 471, 472, 473

Voice

181, 182, 183; 281, 282, 283;
381, 382, 383; 481, 482, 483

Woodwinds

191, 192, 193; 291, 292, 293;
391, 392, 393; 491, 492, 493

Prerequisite: Written permission of the department chairman; for organ, demonstrated proficiency in piano technique

Corequisite: After three quarters of applied music at the 100 level, non-music majors must take a course in music theory, appreciation, or history concurrent with each quarter of applied music.

Credit: Beginning music students may not receive credit for applied music (see non-credit).

Music majors must earn a minimum of 15 quarter hours in one instrument or voice and may earn a maximum of 24 quarter hours. Credit is awarded as follows: one credit hour for each quarter at the 100 level; two credit hours for each quarter above the 100 level. The music major is awarded three credit hours (Music 459, 469, 479, 489, or 499) upon completion of a senior recital.

Non-majors may earn a maximum of 15 quarter hours.

Any hours in excess of the maximum credits must represent work beyond the one hundred eighty hours required for the degree.

Non-Credit: Students may take one or two half-hour lessons per week in applied music without degree credit, and with permission of the department chairman. Students taking non-credit applied music are expected to practice a minimum of six hours weekly. Those who fail to meet this requirement may be asked to discontinue their lessons.

Ensembles

College Glee Club. Open to students of the College without fee. Membership by try-out. Study and performance of sacred and secular choral music. Concerts are given several times during the year.

Madrigal singers. Open to limited number of qualified students.

Baroque ensembles. Open to qualified students. Performance of baroque and classical music.

Woodwind quintet. Open to qualified students.

Opera workshop. Open to all qualified students.

London Fog. A jazz vocal group open to limited number of qualified students.

Group Instruction

Group instruction in harpsichord and voice is offered for a nominal fee.

Philosophy

Associate Professors: David P. Behan
Richard D. Parry¹ (Chairman)

The department offers two approaches to philosophy on the beginning level: the systematic and the historical. Although the two approaches are not strictly separate, they each have different emphases. The systematic approach deals with issues in philosophy, e.g. ethics, without necessarily concentrating on the historical development of the issue. The historical approach traces the development of issues through a portion of the history of philosophy. The systematic beginning courses are: 102, 103, 104, 106, 230, 232. The historical beginning courses are 206, 209; the latter courses are best taken in historical sequence.

The requirements for a major program in philosophy embody two goals. First, the student will learn, through close work with original sources, the ideas of the major figures in philosophy, ancient through contemporary. Second, the student will learn and practice techniques of careful analysis and constructive reasoning which are the heart of philosophy as a living discipline.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

Two courses in the history of philosophy: 206 and 209 (or 207-208)

One course in ethics: 230

One course in logic: 103 or 317

One course in the following: 305, 308, 309, 310, 315, (307)

Three courses from the following: 320, 323, 325, 339, 340, 341, (324)

102s. The Existence of God (3)

Can the existence of God be proved through reason alone? An examination of medieval, modern, and contemporary arguments for and against the existence of God. Mr. Behan

103w. Introduction to Logic (3)

An introduction to the rudiments of critical thinking, designed to give the student those logical techniques appropriate to the analysis of ordinary discourse. Mr. Parry

104w. Law, Morality, and the State (3)

To what extent should the criminal law be used to enforce morals? Consideration of natural law v. utilitarian theories of morality and organic v. social contract theories of the state. Mr. Behan

106f. Persons and Their Bodies (3)

Can a human being survive bodily death? Discussion of metaphysical dualism, philosophical behaviorism, and the brain-mind identity theory. Mr. Behan

206f. History of Ancient Philosophy (3)

The thought of the major figures in Western philosophy from the pre-Socratic era to the early Middle Ages.

Mr. Parry

¹On leave 1981-82

- 209w-s. Introduction to Modern Philosophy (6)
 The historical development of philosophic thought in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Readings in Descartes, Spinoza, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, and Kant.
 Open to freshmen with permission of the instructor
 Not open to students who have had 207, 208 Mr. Behan
- 230f. Ethics (5)
 A study of the meanings of ethical terms and the different criteria for determining goodness and rightness. Mr. Parry
- 232s. Aesthetics (3)
 A consideration of the nature and meaning of the arts, with special attention to the status of the artistic object and the characteristics of the percipient's awareness.
 Open to freshmen with permission of the instructor Mr. Parry
- 250f. Philosophy of Science (5)
 An investigation of such issues as the nature, justification, and scope of scientific method; the patterns of scientific explanation in the natural sciences; and the reality of scientific constructs.
- 300-level courses are open to sophomores by permission of the instructor.
- 302f. Medieval Philosophy (5)
 An investigation of the philosophy of the Middle Ages. Beginning with neo-Platonism, the course concentrates on the writings of St. Augustine, Abailard, St. Anselm, St. Thomas Aquinas, John Duns Scotus, and William of Ockham.
 Prerequisite: 206
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Parry
- 305s (Political Science 305). Marx and the Varieties of Socialism (5)
 A study of the role of Marx's thought in the development of socialism, beginning with the early Marx and including Engels' orthodoxy, Bernstein's revisionism, Leninism, Maoism, Social Democracy, Eurocommunism, and socialism in the Third World.
 Mr. Cochran and Mr. Parry
- 308s. The Classic Period of American Philosophy (5)
 A study of pragmatism in the works of Peirce, James, Royce, and Dewey.
 Prerequisite: 206 or permission of the instructor
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Parry
- 309w. Phenomenology and Existentialism (5)
 An introduction to phenomenology and existentialism through readings in Husserl, Heidegger, and Sartre.
 Prerequisite: 209 or permission of the instructor Mr. Behan
- 310w. Philosophy Colloquium (3)
 A course which gives the student a forum for exercising her dialectical and critical skills on a topic of current interest. Participants will study the relevant philosophic theories and develop techniques for oral criticism of presentations made by visiting speakers. Students will present their own positions to the colloquium at the end of the course.
 Prerequisite: 103
 Not offered 1981-82 The Department
- 315f (Bible and Religion 345). Philosophy of Religion (5)
 Prerequisite: Bible and Religion 200 or 201; or one of the following: Philosophy 101, 102, 105, 106, 206, 209, (207, 208)
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82

317f. Symbolic Logic	(5)
A development of the first-order predicate calculus with special attention to some of the relevant metatheory.
Prerequisite: permission of the instructor
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
	Mr. Parry
320w. Plato	(5)
An intensive study of selected dialogues.
Prerequisite: 206 or 230
Not offered 1981-82
	Mr. Parry
323f. Kant's Critical Philosophy	(5)
An intensive study of Kant's Critique of Pure Reason .
Prerequisite: 209
Not open to students who have had 324
	Mr. Behan
325f. Post-Kantian German Idealism	(5)
The philosophy of Hegel, with reference to the works of Fichte and Schelling.
Prerequisite: 209
Not offered 1981-82
	Mr. Behan
339s. Theory of Knowledge	(5)
A critical study of major issues in contemporary epistemology.
Prerequisite: 209
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
	Mr. Behan
340s. The Metaphysical Problem of the Self	(5)
Contemporary metaphysical theories of the self assessed in comparison with those of Descartes, Locke, and Hume. Particular emphasis upon the concept of person and the philosophic problem of personal identity.
Prerequisite: 209
Alternate years: offered 1981-82
	Mr. Behan
341s. Current Problems in Analytic Philosophy	(5)
A consideration of some problems in ordinary language philosophy.
Prerequisite: 209 or 323
Alternate years: not offered 1981-82
	Mr. Parry
410f,w,s. Special Study	(3 or 5)
Supervised intensive study in fields or periods of philosophy.

Physical Education

Associate Professors:	Kathryn A. Manuel (Chairman) Kate McKemie
Assistant Professor:	Marylin B. Darling ¹
Instructor:	Jo Ann Messick

¹On leave 1981-82

It is the purpose of the Department of Physical Education to assist students in their physical, mental, and social development through a program of regular physical activity. Physical education is required of all students three hours a week during the first two years. Students entering with advanced standing credits, but with additional credit to earn in physical education, are required to take physical education in their first quarter or quarters of residence.

Students who must be limited in physical activity should have a physician's statement filed with the Dean of the College.

During the fall quarter, freshmen must elect one of the following activities: field hockey, dance, or swimming.

Students may not receive physical education credit for more than two quarters of the same activity at the same level.

The physical education program includes a wide variety of activities which accommodate varying levels of skills and abilities. In order to complete a diverse program, students select courses from at least three of the five areas listed below:

Aquatics: Intermediate swimming, synchronized swimming, advanced lifesaving, Red Cross instructor's course in water safety.

Dance: Beginning and intermediate contemporary dance, ballet, jazz, tap, folk, square, and social dance.

Dual Sports: Badminton, fencing, tennis.

Individual Sports: Archery, camping, fundamentals, golf, gymnastics and tumbling. Riding (huntseat equitation, Olympic style) is taught at the Vogt Riding Academy. Transportation is provided.

Team Sports: Basketball, field hockey, softball, volleyball.

Elementary Games, a methods course in physical education for elementary grade children (winter quarter, MWF 12:10), is required for elementary education certification.

Introduction to the Dance (Theatre 206), a course in the historical background of the dance, is offered jointly by the Departments of Physical Education and Theatre.

Clothing

Clothing of uniform design for physical education is required of all entering students. Information regarding the purchase of clothing is sent during the summer. The College furnishes dance leotards, swim suits, and towels. Junior transfer students who have had two years of physical education need not order suits before arriving at college.

Studio Dance Theatre

The objective of Studio Dance Theatre is to acquire a broad understanding of the dance through the study of dance elements: technique, composition, and improvisation. A Children's Show is performed in the winter quarter as well as a major concert in the spring. Admission to Studio Dance Theatre is by auditions held in the fall and winter quarters.

Dolphin Club

The purpose of Dolphin Club is to encourage and develop the art of synchronized swimming. Each year the club presents a water show during the winter quarter. Tryouts for membership are held in the fall and spring.

Intramural Sports

The Athletic Association, with assistance from the physical education department, sponsors tournaments and intramural games. Fall activities include field hockey and tennis. During the winter quarter, badminton tournaments and basketball games are scheduled. In the spring, a swimming meet, softball and volleyball games, tennis, archery, and golf are sponsored.

Intercollegiate Sports

The College, a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, provides intercollegiate competition in certain activities. Tennis: In the fall, practice matches are scheduled with area colleges and universities. During the spring quarter, competition in tennis is scheduled with other Division III colleges and universities. Six singles players and three doubles teams compete in regular season matches. The season is finalized with participation in the annual G.A.I.A.W. State Tennis Tournament, with the opportunity to advance to the regional and national tournaments. Field Hockey: Games in field hockey are scheduled with other institutions during the fall quarter. Cross Country: Runners compete in cross country events in the area throughout the year.

A physical examination is required for participation in intercollegiate sports.

Open Hours

During the year certain hours are set aside each week when students may swim and play badminton and tennis. The facilities of the department are available for student use when not otherwise scheduled for instructional or organized intramural and intercollegiate activities. Attention of students is directed to regulations posted in the physical education building concerning the care and use of facilities.

Physics and Astronomy

Assistant Professors: Arthur L. Bowling, Jr. (Chairman)
Robert S. Hyde

The training acquired through concentration in Physics or Physics-Astronomy provides a solid, technical foundation for later graduate study and professional work in physics, astronomy, and the applied fields of engineering and geophysics. Students who wish to major in physics are encouraged, but not required, to take Physics 210-211 during their freshman year.

Students considering the Astronomy-Physics major should elect the introductory astronomy sequence (Astronomy 121, 122, 123) and Mathematics 120-121 during their freshman year. Physics 210-211 is normally taken during the sophomore year, but the well-prepared student is encouraged to enroll in this course during her freshman year.

Introductory astronomy courses are open to both science and non-science majors and incorporate the use of the Bradley Observatory's 30-inch Beck telescope. Most astronomy courses require some observational activities in the Bradley Observatory.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

Physics

Physics 210-211, 33 additional hours as approved by the department
Mathematics 201, 309

Physics-Astronomy

Physics 210-211, 12 additional hours as approved by the department
Astronomy 121, 122, 123, 15 additional hours as approved by the department
Mathematics 201

Physics

210f-w. Introduction to Mechanics and Electromagnetism (8)

Mechanics, properties of matter, gravitation, oscillations, and electromagnetism. Calculus is used.
3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: Mathematics 120-121 or permission of the instructor

Open to freshmen who meet the prerequisite

Mr. Bowling

211s. Introduction to Heat, Sound, and Light (4)

Elements of thermodynamics, waves, sound, and optics. Calculus is used. 3 LEC, 1 LAB

Prerequisite: 210f-w

Open to freshmen who meet the prerequisite

Not open to students who have had 210s

Mr. Bowling

- 310f. Introduction to Modern Physics (3)
 Special relativity, elementary quantum theory and applications.
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Prerequisite or corequisite: Math 201
 Open to sophomores Mr. Bowling
- 311f. Modern Physics Laboratory (1)
 Illustration of some of the important experimental results of twentieth-century physics. 1 LAB
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Open to sophomores
 Not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 320w. Classical Mechanics I (3)
 Newtonian, Lagrangian, and Hamiltonian formulations of classical mechanics. Oscillations and central force motion.
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Prerequisite or corequisite: Math 201
 Open to sophomores
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 321s. Classical Mechanics II (3)
 Accelerated reference frames, rigid body motion, coupled oscillators, waves.
 Prerequisite: 320
 Open to sophomores
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 330w. Thermal Physics (3)
 Equilibrium thermodynamics and an introduction to kinetic theory and statistical mechanics.
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Open to sophomores
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 331s. Statistical Mechanics (3)
 Ensembles, partition functions, transport phenomena.
 Prerequisite: 330
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 340f. Electricity and Magnetism (3)
 Electrostatics and magnetostatics. Introduction to boundary value problems. Maxwell's equations.
 Prerequisite: 210-211; Mathematics 201
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 341w. Electrodynamics (3)
 Time-dependent fields, motion of charged particles, relativistic invariance of the theory.
 Prerequisite: 340
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 342s. Electromagnetic Radiation (3)
 Emission and behavior of electromagnetic waves.
 Prerequisite: 341
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 343f or f-w or f-w-s. Electronics Laboratory (1,2, or 3)
 DC and AC circuits, active components, introduction to digital techniques and modern optics. 1 LAB
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Alternate years: offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling

- 360w. Quantum Mechanics I (3)
 General formalism, wave mechanics, spin and angular momentum, approximation methods, scattering.
 Prerequisite: 210-211
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 361s. Quantum Mechanics II (3)
 Many-particle systems. Applications of quantum mechanics.
 Prerequisite: 360
 Alternate years: not offered 1981-82 Mr. Bowling
- 410f,w,s. Special Study (3)
 Supervised study to meet needs of the individual student. The Department
- 490. Independent Study (6-10)
 Independent research is arranged under the supervision of a member of the department. Results are presented in both seminar and written forms. The Department

Astronomy

- 121f. Introductory Astronomy (4)
 This introductory course is primarily observational. The motion of the earth, moon, and planets is discussed in an historical context. Other topics considered include positional astronomy, electromagnetic radiation, telescopic observation, and an introduction to astrophotography. 3 LEC, 1 evening laboratory session per week at Bradley Observatory
 Not open to students who have had 151 Mr. Hyde
- 122w. Introduction to Stellar and Galactic Astronomy (4)
 Topics include stellar classification and evolution, contents and dynamics of the Milky Way Galaxy, extra-galactic systems, and an introduction to cosmology. 3 LEC, 1 evening laboratory session per week at Bradley Observatory
 Prerequisite: 121
 Not open to students who have had 153 Mr. Hyde
- 123s. Introduction to Solar System Astronomy (4)
 The solar system inventory including the sun, planets, asteroids, meteors, and comets is discussed. The earth-moon system, solar-terrestrial effects, a comparative study of planetary atmospheres, and the theories of solar system formation are considered. 3 LEC, 1 evening laboratory session per week at Bradley Observatory
 Prerequisite: 121
 Not open to students who have had 152 Mr. Hyde
- 200w. Modern Astrophysics (3)
 Topics include an introduction to cosmology, the present state and origin of the universe, selected topics in stellar evolution, pulsars and black holes, the structure of galaxies and quasars.
 Prerequisite: 122
 Prerequisite or corequisite: Physics 210-211 Mr. Hyde
- 210f. Observational Techniques (3)
 Topics include evaluation of optical systems, principles of astrometry, and techniques in photography, photometry, and spectroscopy. Requires one evening per week at Bradley Observatory.
 Prerequisite: 122, 123
 Prerequisite or corequisite: Physics 210-211 Mr. Hyde

- 225s. Solar System Astrophysics (3)
Solar system dynamics, atmospheres of the earth and other planets, interplanetary medium, solar-terrestrial effects.
Prerequisite: 123
Prerequisite or corequisite: Physics 210-211 Mr. Hyde
- 300f. Methods in Theoretical Astrophysics (3)
Physical concepts and techniques of particular interest in astrophysics will be selected from the fields of spectroscopy, statistical physics, hydrodynamics, and radiative transfer theory.
Prerequisite: 122, 123; Physics 210-211
Prerequisite or corequisite: Mathematics 201 Mr. Hyde
- 315w. Stellar Astrophysics (3)
Physical structure of stars is deduced from observation. Evolutionary scenarios are discussed.
Prerequisite: 300 Mr. Hyde
- 330f. Plasma Astrophysics (3)
Principles and techniques in plasma physics are developed and applied to magnetospheric phenomena, dynamics of self-gravitating systems, interplanetary and interstellar magnetic fields, solar atmospheric phenomena.
Prerequisite: 122, 123; Physics 210-211
Prerequisite or corequisite: Mathematics 201
- 340s. Interstellar Matter (3)
The physical properties of interstellar dust and gas are deduced from optical, infrared, and radio observations. Super nova remnants, star formation theory, and the role of interstellar matter in galactic dynamics will be discussed.
Prerequisite: 122, 123; Physics 210-211 Mr. Hyde
- 350s. Celestial Mechanics (3)
Two-body problem, satellite motions, perturbation theory, star clusters and galaxies, and the universe as a group of galaxies will be discussed.
Prerequisite: Physics 320
- 360s. General Relativity and Cosmology (3)
Tensor calculus is developed and applied in a discussion of general relativity. Gravitational collapse and gravitational radiation will be discussed as will theoretical models of the evolution of the universe.
Prerequisite: permission of the instructor
- 410f,w,s. Special Study (3)
Supervised study in specific areas of astronomy. Observation and laboratory work included when appropriate. Mr. Hyde
- 490. Independent Study (6-10)
Independent research is arranged under the supervision of a member of the department. Results are presented in both seminar and written forms.

Political Science

Associate Professor: Augustus B. Cochran, III (Chairman)
Assistant Professor: Steven A. Haworth

The political science curriculum offers courses in four subfields: American politics, international relations, comparative politics, and political theory. A major may concentrate in any of these areas. Introductory courses correspond to these subfields, allowing a prospective major to choose her initial courses according to her primary interests. The department does require, however, that majors take courses in at least three subfields. Majors are required to undertake also an individual research project to ensure experience in political science research methods. This requirement may be fulfilled either through the seminar in research methodology or a program of independent study. An optional senior seminar permits an intensive exploration of topics selected annually to reflect the interests of the participants. Majors are urged to consider internships as a means of complementing their classroom studies with practical field experience.

A student interested in a study relating political science, history, and economics is invited to consider the interdepartmental major in International Relations.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

At least two of the following: 102, 103, 104, 201, 202, (or 101)

A minimum of 36 hours on the upper-division level, including at least one course from each of the following groups:

(a) 320, 321, 324, 326, 350, 390

(b) 305, 391, 420

(c) 339, 352, 359, 392, 395, (357)

393-394 or 490 (Students planning to do independent study are urged to take 393.)

History 100 or 105-106 or 210-211 (or 101 or 102 or 103 or 205-206)

A maximum of ten hours from the following courses may be applied toward the minimum 45-hour major: 305, 330, 331, 352, 359.

Students planning to do graduate study are advised to take Mathematics 115.

Students majoring in political science are encouraged to participate in an approved internship program. There are several programs available: the Washington Semester (programs in American Government, Foreign Policy, International Development, Criminal Justice, and Urban Policy) and the Georgia Legislative Internship Program. For example, on an individual basis, students may obtain placement with: the Governor's Internship Program, the DeKalb Legal Aid Society, the DeKalb County Commission, or a Congressional staff.

102f. Introduction to American Government

(5)

A survey of American political institutions and issues: the Supreme Court, Congress, the Presidency, parties, interest groups, and public opinion.

Not open to students who have had 101

Mr. Cochran

103f. Introduction to International Politics

(5)

A study of the major problems and trends in world politics, especially since World War II: great power rivalry, revolution in weapons technology, emergence of the Third World, resource scarcity, and the role of international organizations.

Not open to students who have had 101

Mr. Haworth

104s. The Contemporary Political Crisis (5)

The political implications of the world ecological crisis, and an analysis of some of the political theorizing to which it gives rise. The relevance of some past political theorists for the current crisis will be examined.

Not open to students who have had 101

Mr. Haworth

201w. Comparative Politics (5)

A survey of developed and underdeveloped countries with emphasis on problems of political development, institutionalization, and economic growth.

Open to freshmen who have had 102 or 103

Mr. Haworth

202s. Modern Political Thought (5)

An examination of the major theorists whose ideas have shaped the politics and ideologies of the modern world.

Open to freshmen who have had 102 or 103

Mr. Cochran

Theatre

Professor: Jack T. Brooking (Chairman)
Assistant Professor: John W. Toth
Instructor: Dudley W. Sanders

The goal of the Department of Theatre is to establish high standards of creativity and appreciation in order to enhance the theatre experience as a facet of the liberal arts tradition. This is accomplished through a program which interrelates theory, history, and practice. With the Winter Theatre as the laboratory, all aspects of the theatre arts may be studied in close association with the creative process of the produced play.

Students who are planning to major in theatre should consult with the chairman of the theatre department early in their college careers. It would be advantageous for prospective majors to complete Theatre 100, 104, 106, and 108 as soon as possible since they form a working basis for the more advanced courses. The theatre major must fulfill a core of basic courses which stresses the interrelationship of three key areas: introduction and history, creative exploration and experience, and the mastery of techniques.

A student interested in theatre, art, and music is invited to consider the interdepartmental major in Fine Arts.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

Introduction and History: 100, 308, 310, 343

Creative Exploration and Experience: 104, 106

Mastery and Techniques: 108, 200, 326

Three courses from the following theatre-related courses in other departments:

Art 101; Classics 310; English 313, 314, 323, 329; Music 106; Philosophy 232; dramatic literature courses in the departments of Classical Languages and Literatures, French, German, and Spanish; certain courses in history with the approval of the department.

Non-majors electing more than three lecture/laboratory courses are required to balance each additional lecture/laboratory course with a course in Theatre History. Non-majors electing more than three courses in Theatre History are required to balance each additional course with a lecture/laboratory course.

Lecture/laboratory courses are: Theatre 100, 106, 107, 200, 202, 204, 212, 231, 232, 233, 311, and 426.

Alumnae Association — 1980-1981

Organized in 1895, the Alumnae Association of Agnes Scott College has as its purpose the furtherance of the intellectual, spiritual, and financial aims of the College. All former students who earned any academic credit while in college are members of the Association. Its work is done under the authority of an Executive Board elected by the membership and composed of officers; committee chairmen; and, ex officio, the director of alumnae affairs, the associate director, and the assistant to the director.

The Anna Young Alumnae House is operated as the international headquarters of the Alumnae Association and as the guest house for the College. The Association publishes The Agnes Scott Alumnae Quarterly, conducts the alumnae division of the Agnes Scott Fund, maintains files of information on more than 9,000 alumnae, and keeps alumnae aware of the nature of the College today.

Volunteer committees work with alumnae clubs and individuals throughout the United States and various other countries, corresponding with class officers, offering programs of continuing education for alumnae, arranging special interest tours, planning class reunions, suggesting fund-raising projects, acting as alumnae admissions representatives for the College, and presenting career conferences for students and special events for the College or alumnae groups. The Alumnae Association seeks to make alumnae opinions available to the College and to make Agnes Scott alumnae an active force in education.

Notes

Gifts to Agnes Scott

Agnes Scott is grateful for the gifts of alumnae, parents, and other friends whose support makes possible the maintenance of its high standards. The College welcomes gifts of cash, securities, and other property. A college representative will discuss without obligation the life income plans available to donors. For further information please call collect (404) 373-2571 for Paul M. McCain, Vice President for Development, Agnes Scott College.

Forms of Bequests

An unrestricted bequest may be worded:

"I give to Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia, the sum of $_____."

A Bequest for a specific purpose may read as follows:

"I give to Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia, the sum of $_____ to be known as the _____ Fund, the income therefrom to be used to assist worthy students."

A donor wishing to restrict a gift is encouraged to discuss ways of accomplishing this preference with a member of the staff of the Office of Development.

A residuary clause may be expressed:

"All the rest, residue, and remainder of my real and personal estate, I give to Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia."

Anyone wishing to make a bequest to Agnes Scott is advised to consult an attorney.
